

364

408

444

CONTENTS

353 EDITOR'S LETTER

355 ALPINE DIARY

A round-up of AGS shows in 2015;
book review.

364 ROBERT ROLFE'S DIARY

A look at oriental highlights throughout Britain in the past year.

396 PHOTO ALBUM:
MEDITERRANEAN ISLANDS

A mouth-watering selection of images from the AGS Slide Library.

408 ALPINE
BRASSICAS

There can hardly be an AGS
member who does not grow
at least one alpine brassica, whether it be Iberis or Draba.
Robert Rolfe assesses their current status in cultivation.

444 PATAGONIAN
BRASSICAS

Martin and Anna-Liisa
Sheader choose the best.

452 THE ENIGMA OF
A SCOTTISH WILLOW

David Tennant researches the mysterious origins of Salix x boydii.

PRACTICAL GARDENING

374 DAPHNE PETRAEA

Robin White passes on his expertise in growing the finest forms of this very desirable dwarf shrub.

386 SHRUBS ON
SANDY SOILS

Vic Aspland copes with cultivation on 'beach-like' soil.

458 PRIZE PLANTS

Splendid exhibits from this year's Ulster, London, East Anglia, Malvern, Southport, Wimborne, Bakewell and Pershore AGS shows.

COVER PHOTOGRAPHS

FRONT Ophrys speculum from Bulbs of the Eastern Mediterranean by Oron Peri, just published by the AGS (Nejdet Bozkut).

BACK Epipactis veratrifolia near Episkopi, Cyprus (Peter Sheasby; see page 396).

ON THESE PAGES

LEFT Trillium grandiflorum f. roseum; Heliophila coronopifolia with *Cotula
turbinata*; Sarcodrabra subterranea.

RIGHT Daphne petraea 'Cima
Tombea'; Serapias neglecta; Delosperma ecklonis 'Fire Spinner' shown by Audrey Dart at this year's AGS East Anglia Show.

374

396

458