

306

240

308

CONTENTS

235 EDITOR'S LETTER

237 ALPINE DIARY

A special Alpine Open Day at RHS Garden Wisley; readers' letters.

240 JOHN GOOD'S DIARY

The variety that results from gardening with a butterfly mind.

306 HOW TO GROW IT

Robert Rolfe on Acanthus hirsutus subsp. syriacus.

SPECIAL SEASONAL FEATURE

308 THE ALLURE OF AUTUMN

Robert Rolfe looks at the seasonal highlights in a selection of fine gardens.

336 A TRIO FOR SEPTEMBER

Peter Erskine praises three autumn favourites.

340 LATE CROCUSES

Robin White relates some experiences with autumn-flowering crocuses.

HEPATICAS

250 The surge in the popularity of this genus shows no sign of abating. In this wide-ranging and in-depth study, Michael Myers surveys and evaluates the species and hybrids in cultivation.

Then, on page 297, he looks at their cultivation, in the process consulting key growers to compare and contrast their techniques.

344 PRIZE PLANTS

Splendid exhibits from this year's Northumberland, South West, Cleveland, Chesterfield, Dublin and Midland AGS shows.

COVER PHOTOGRAPHS

FRONT Hepatica acutiloba x nobilis 'Cremar' (see page 250).

BACK Crocus kotschyanus var. leucopharynx (see page 308).

ON THESE PAGES

LEFT Acanthus hirsutus subsp. syriacus; Paeonia obovata 'Alba'; Colchicum autumnale 'Album'.

RIGHT A crevice garden in a trough; Hepatica nobilis 'Mussel'; Saxifraga 'Allendale Duo' exhibited by Mark Childerhouse at this year's Chesterfield AGS Show.

237

250

344