Hallo Laserdisc- und DVD-Fans, liebe Filmfreunde!

Das Editorial der neuesten Ausgabe unseres Newsletters widmet sich dieses Mal ausnahmsweise nicht der großen weiten Welt der Silberscheiben, sondern steht im Zeichen einer ganz persönlichen Angelegenheit. Denn schließlich wird man nicht alle Tage 50 Jahre alt. Ich darf mich also ab sofort zu der vieldiskutierten Gruppe der „Best Ager“ zählen, also jener Bevölkerungsschicht, denen nach gesagt wird, sie hätten genügend Geld, um die Wirtschaft so richtig anzukurbeln. Nun, wenn dem so ist, dann besteht für meine Wenigkeit ja noch große Hoffnung! Aber Spaß beiseite. In dem halben Jahrhundert, das ich jetzt auf dem Buckel habe, habe ich mich mehr mit Film beschäftigt als mit irgendeinem anderen Thema (sehr zum Leidwesen einiger Weggefährten - aber das ist ein anderes Thema). Was lag da also näher als den 50. Geburtstag irgendwie mit Film und Kino zu verknüpfen. Hinzu kam noch die Tatsache, dass ich nicht alleine 50 Jahre alt wurde. Zeitgleich gab es nämlich noch zwei weitere Jubilare, die allesamt genauso filmverrückt sind wie ich selbst: mein Bruder Volker und unser gemeinsamer Freund Theodor Sieber. Letzterer ist übrigens seit Mitte Dezember der neue Pächter des einzigen Kinocenters in Pirmasens. Uns drei verbindet nicht nur Film und Kino im Allgemeinen, sondern der 70mm Film im Besonderen. Und so hatten wir bereits im vergangenen Jahr den

Entschluss gefasst, unseren runden Geburtstag gemeinsam zu feiern. Und das natürlich standesgemäß: in einem richtigen Kino und mit 70mm breiten Filmen. Nach langer Vorbereitung war es am Abend des 23. Februar 2008 dann soweit. Wir luden zu einer privaten Filmvorführung in die Schauburg nach Karlsruhe ein. Auf dem Programm standen das Filmmusical HELLO DOLLY sowie der Actionkracher TERMINATOR 2. Alles natürlich im Original und in bester Bild- und Tonqualität dank 70mm und der hervorragenden Technik der Schauburg. Umrahmt wurde das Ganze noch mit Wochenschauen und Trailern aus unserem Geburtsjahr sowie kulinarischen Köstlichkeiten im Foyer. Unsere Gäste waren begeistert und wir waren es natürlich auch. Als besonderen Gag ließ Hausherr Herbert Born, ohne dessen aktive Mithilfe dieses Event nie zustande gekommen wäre, die Hausfront der Schauburg für unsere Veranstaltung entsprechend plakatieren (siehe Bild oben). „150 Jahre filmverrückt“ war das Motto dieses für uns unvergesslichen Abends. Als ich gegen fünf Uhr morgens wieder im Hotel war, dachte ich noch darüber nach, was wohl das Motto unserer 210er-Feier sein würde. Aber vielleicht gibt es ja im Jahre 2028 schon gar keine richtigen Kinos mehr. Ein trauriger Gedanke.

Ihr Wolfram Hannemann

Die geläuterte Krämerseele

Zum Wochenbeginn gab es mal wieder schönes, ruhiges Kino aus Frankreich.

DER FLIEGENDE HÄNDLER (LE FILS DE L'EPICIER) (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Der heimkehrende Sohn übernimmt zunächst widerwillig den fahrenden Krämerladen seines Vaters. Im Lauf der Zeit und unter Mitwirkung einer lieben Freundin findet er dann doch Geschmack am idyllischen Landleben. Ein kleiner, leiser und schön besetzter Film über Familienkonflikte und das Älterwerden. Na, das passt doch wunderbar zu meinem Geburtstag, der sich heute zum 50. Male jährt...

Ein Call-Center und die Royals

Nach einem Tag Erholungspause ging es heute wieder frisch ans Werk!

OUTSOURCED (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Es hat wieder richtig Spaß gemacht, den Eröffnungsfilm des letztjährigen Bollywood-Festivals nochmals zu sehen. Die Geschichte über ein nach Indien ausgelagertes, amerikanisches Call-Center ist eine anspruchsvolle Komödie, die mir auch trotz der deutschen Sprachfassung ein paar Lacher entlocken konnte. Offizieller Kinostart ist der 10. April.

THE OTHER BOLEYN GIRL (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Das nenne ich eine Traumbesetzung: Scarlett Johansson und Nathalie Portman gemeinsam in einem Film. Und beide sind so gut wie immer in dieser wahren Geschichte um Macht, Liebe, Eifersucht und was den englischen Hof damals noch so bewegte. Die digital aufgenommenen Bilder entbehrten leider oftmals der gewohnten Brillanz. Dennoch ein packender Film, bei dem auch ein paar Köpfe rollen. Im Kino ab

6. März 2008. Bis morgen!

Eindimensionales und Plastisches

Der Donnerstag erwartete mich mit einem Double-Feature:

DADDY OHNE PLAN (THE GAME PLAN) (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Wenn Dwayne „The Rock“ Johnson in einem Film ohne Altersbeschränkung mitmacht, kann das schlimme Folgen haben. Und so war's denn auch. Ein typisch amerikanischer Film, konzipiert für das Megaplex-Publikum, das in Familienstärke anrückt und ein XXL-Popcorn sowie XXXXL-Getränk mit in den Saal nimmt. Von echtem Niveau mag man angesichts der ständig vorhersehbaren Handlung nicht mehr sprechen. Oder sehe ich vielleicht zu viele Filme? Kinostart am 27. März 2008

DOLPHINS & WHALES (1:1.85, 5.1, 2K Digital 3D)

Wer sich für Meeressäuger begeistern kann oder auch nur der schönen Stimme von Daryl Hannah lauschen möchte, der ist bei diesem 40minüter richtig aufgehoben. Überzeugende 3D-Technik (in Stuttgart in der Shutter-Ausführung) lässt die Meeresbewohner hautnah erleben. Ab 13. März im Kino. Will blog again tomorrow...

Was auf die Ohren

Mein persönlicher Wochenausklang....

U2 3D (1:1.85, 5.1, 2K Digital 3D)

Der ultimative Konzertfilm für alle U2 Fans! Den solltet Ihr allerdings nur in bestens ausgestatteten Filmtheatern ansehen und anhören. THIS FILM SHOULD BE PLAYED LOUD! Der großen Tradition verpflichtet, dass man es mir nicht recht machen kann, hatte ich natürlich einen Kritikpunkt anzubringen: der Film ist offensichtlich mit etwas zu wenig (Sub)Bass abgemischt. Der ist allerdings bei einem solchen Konzertfilm unerlässlich. Aber vielleicht holt ja die Schauburg in Karlsruhe noch mehr aus dem Ton heraus ;-)... Was das 3D angeht: aufgrund meines Augenfehlers habe ich da nicht viel mitbekommen. Meine Kollegen haben mir jedoch versichert, dass der Film eine schöne räumliche Tiefe aufweist. Zu sehen und zu hören ab 13. März überall.

HANAMI - KIRSCHBLÜTEN (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Der neue Film von Doris Dörrie hat mich beeindruckt und auch sehr bewegt (muss wohl am Alter liegen ;-)). Die erste Hälfte des Films ist unglaublich real. Identifikationen sind nicht ausgeschlossen. Hervorragende Schauspieler (allen voran Elmar Wepper) und eine gute Kameraarbeit machen den Film zu einem Erlebnis, für das man gerne mal in ein Arthaus-Kino geht. Kinostart: 6. März 2008

Und damit hätten wir's für diese Woche. Halt - noch nicht ganz. Denn am Samstagabend ist schon das nächste Double Feature geplant: breiter geht's nicht.

Montag, 25. Februar 2008

Lahme Sprünge

Nach einem filmreichen, superbreiten Wochenende hat mich die grausame Realität heute wieder eingeholt.

JUMPER (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Diesem Film müsste man mal auf die Sprünge helfen! Ich habe schon lange nicht mehr so minderwertiges Mainstreamkino gesehen. Blasse Figuren und eine einfallslose Handlung hauen mich einfach nicht vom Hocker. Dieses Produkt wäre besser im TV aufgehoben, wo es als Pilotfilm für eine

Wolfram Hannemanns Film-Blog

52teilige Serie eingesetzt werden könnte. Ab 27. März im Kino.

Überraschendes aus Deutschland

Zwei Filme aus deutscher Produktion wurden heute serviert.

ABSURDISTAN (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Eine richtig schräge Geschichte mit Situationen und Charakteren, die man so bislang nur aus Filmen wie DELICATESSEN kannte. Inszeniert von Veit Helmer erzählt der Film von einem unbekanntem kleinen Dorf in einem unbekanntem Land, in dem es einen „Krieg“ zwischen den Geschlechtern gibt. Ich fand's köstlich, obgleich die Sprecher aus dem Off etwas dilettantisch wirkten. Ab 20. März im Kino.

UP! UP! TO THE SKY (1:2.35, Dolby SR)

Bei diesem Film stand ganz offensichtlich der geniale K-PAX Pate. Nichtsdestotrotz (und obwohl Katja Riemann agiert) war ich schwer beeindruckt aufgrund der bild- und tontechnischen Brillanz dieses Werkes. Selten habe ich in den letzten Wochen ein derart gestochen scharfes CinemaScope-Bild sehen dürfen. Dass dem Film mit seinem wunderbaren Sounddesign kein 5.1-Mix gegönnt wurde, kann ich leider nicht nachvollziehen und stufe dies als ein Verbrechen ein ;-) ! Im Kino ab 10. April 2008. Bis morgen!

Mittwoch, 27. Februar 2008

Von Familien und Nasen

Komödiantisch gab sich auch mein Kino-Mittwoch.

DAN IN REAL LIFE (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Eine nette kleine Komödie, die von Hauptdarsteller Steve Carell getragen wird. Allerdings gespickt mit einer Überdosis an Familie - typisch amerikanisch eben. Da ziehe ich dann doch

LITTLE MISS SUNSHINE

vor...Kinostart: 20. März 2008

PENELOPE (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Auch wenn uns diese in London spielende Komödie eine schöne Botschaft zu vermitteln versucht, hat mich die Müdigkeit während der Vorführung übermannt. Da haben auch Christina Ricci und Reese Witherspoon nichts dagegen machen können. Ab 24. April im Kino. Man bloggt sich übermorgen!

Freitag, 29. Februar 2008

Schwarzer Freitag

Die heutigen Filme haben es mit uns Kritikern nicht gut gemeint und fordern geradezu nach einem systematischen Verriss auf ;-)

ACTRICES (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Nach Diskussion haben wir uns auf folgendes Statement geeinigt: ein Film von Schauspielern für Schauspieler. Was die an Launen und Halluzinationen während den Proben und auch der Aufführung eines Theaterstückes an den Tag legen, mag zwar die Wirklichkeit irgendwo etwas überspitzt treffen, wird jedoch vermutlich nur ein ganz eng gefasstes Zielpublikum haben: Schauspieler. Ab 10. April im Kino.

10.000 BC (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Was uns unser schwäbischer Spielberg hier aufischt ist nichts weiter als eine Aneinanderreihung von Filmklischees. Erklärbar durch übermäßigen Filmkonsum. Das erinnert mich wieder daran, warum ich keine Filme mache... Die Trickeffekte sind zwar ganz gelungen, doch die langweilige und vollkommen unlogische Handlung lässt sich dadurch nicht retten. Dazu eine bombastische Filmmusik, die aus dem Komponistenstall eines Herrn Zimmer stammen könnte: einfallslos und vollkommen unoriginell. Eben so wie man das heute gerne macht.... Wer sich also langweilen möchte, dem sei dieser Kinogang empfohlen. Ab 5. März bundesweit.

Jetzt muss ich mir aber dringend wieder einen richtigen Film anschauen...

100 Girls

Jonathan Tucker, Emmanuelle Chriqui, James DeBello, Katherine Heigl, Larisa Oleynik, Jaime Pressly, Marissa Ribisi - Dir. Michael Davis
College freshman Matthew (Jonathan Tucker) falls in love with a mystery woman in a girls' dorm elevator during a blackout. Though he can't see her, they share a tender moment, intimate on both a physical and emotional level. The thing is...he never sees her face! He knows that she lives in the dorm...which narrows his possibilities down to 100 girls! A witty script and a hip young cast featuring Katherine Heigl (ROSWELL), Jaime Pressly (JOE DIRT), and Marisa Ribisi (DAZED AND CONFUSED) headline this youthful sex comedy with a surprising feminist bent.

ALIEN VS. PREDATOR relegated its intergalactic grudge match to Antarctica, keeping most of humankind gleefully ignorant. This time around, though, the destruction takes place in suburban America, and those who have been waiting for it finally get to witness facehuggers, alien hybrids, and the dreadlocked Predator wreak some homeland havoc. Directors Colin and Greg Strause (billed as „The Brothers Strause“) don't seem concerned with achieving the tension of the original ALIEN and PREDATOR films, instead using their visual effects backgrounds to create a steady stream of monsters, gore, and goo. Picking up where AVP ended, REQUIEM sees Predator on a homebound spacecraft when a baby alien/Predator hybrid bursts from his chest, causing the ship to crash in the Colorado woods. Several facehugger specimens escape, planting eggs down the throats of a hunter and his son. ## Alvin and the Chipmunks

Jason Lee, David Cross, Cameron

Richardson, Jane Lynch - Dir. Tim Hill

This live-action/computer-animated update of Ross Bagdasarian's squeaky-voiced cartoon characters finds the chipmunks (in CGI form) transported from their woodland habitat to the city, where they wind up in the home of Dave Seville (Jason Lee). Dave, a down-on-his-luck songwriter, realizes the potential of a singing chipmunk pop act, and becomes an unlikely mentor/father figure to feisty Alvin, brainy Simon, and dopey Theodore. Meanwhile, the threesome causes chaos in his life, leading to plenty of fun, frenetic scenarios. When a devious record executive (David Cross) enters the picture, however, Alvin and the Chipmunks must deal with both the trappings of fame and their loyalty to the amiable, hapless Dave.

*From the unexpectedly graphic opening shot, director Sidney Lumet proves he hasn't lost any of his bite with age. BEFORE THE DEVIL KNOWS YOU'RE DEAD is a riveting suspense thriller that retains the director's classic approach to storytelling while updating it at the same time. Working from an intense, expertly woven script by playwright-turned-screenwriter Kelly Masterson, Lumet establishes his tragic tone immediately. The story concerns a New York family with a rolling undercurrent of dysfunction. The eldest son, Andy (Philip Seymour Hoffman), is a frustrated, drug-abusing stockbroker who is unable to satisfy his gorgeous wife (Marisa Tomei). The youngest son, Hank (Ethan Hawke), is passive and struggles to make alimony payments. Their parents (Albert Finney and Rosemary Harris) live in Westchester and operate a small jewelry store. Their lives begin to unravel when Andy approaches Hank about pulling off a heist that will seemingly solve all of their monetary problems. ## Bella

Eduardo Verastegui, Tammy Blanchard, Manny Perez, Ali Landry, Angelica Aragon, Jaime Terelli - Dir. Alejandro Monteverde

BELLA opens with a flashback to a confident young man named Jose (Eduardo Verastegui) who is poised to become a major soccer star. The film then flashes forward to the present day, and we see Jose working as a chef in his brother Manny's (Manny Perez) restaurant. A swaggering athlete no more, he has camouflaged his striking looks with long hair and a thick beard. When his hot-tempered brother fires a waitress for showing up late, Jose makes the spontaneous decision to walk off the job and go check on her. He catches the young woman, Nina (Tammy Blanchard), just as she is about to board the subway, and she reveals to him that she is pregnant. Worried for her, Jose suggests they spend the day together, and the two set off for a long, meandering jaunt around New York City. Previously only workmates, they slowly open up to each other over the course of the day. He brings her out to Long Island, where she meets his warm and loving family, and it's there that he tells the tragic story about what derailed his once promising athletic career. They bond with each other in a deeply intimate, though platonic way, a

Beloved / Their Eyes Were Watching God

Gabriel Casseus, Lorraine Toussaint, Oprah Winfrey, Danny Glover, Thandie Newton, Kimberly Elise, Beah Richards, Lisa Gay Hamilton, Albert Hall, Irma P. Hall, Halle Berry - Dir. Jonathan Demme, Darnell Martin

BELOVED: Oprah Winfrey collaborated with director Jonathan Demme (SILENCE OF THE LAMBS) for this African American ghost story, set in 1870s Ohio. Demme adapted it from Toni Morrison's Pulitzer-winning book. Former slave Sethe (Winfrey) lives with her daughter, Denver (Kimberly Elise), in a house haunted by the malignant spirit of Sethe's long-dead infant. Sethe is also haunted by memories of her life of slavery at Sweet Home, the Kentucky plantation where she was raised. Enter Paul D. (Danny Glover), a fellow slave from Sweet Home, who stays at the house to start a new life with Sethe and Denver. Unfortunately their plans for happiness are foiled with the unexpected arrival of Beloved (Thandie Newton), a mysterious woman who may be the physical manifestation of Sethe's dead child. Horrifying secrets are revealed, leading to a shattering climax.

Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid

Paul Newman, Robert Redford, Katharine Ross, Strother Martin, Henry Jones, Cloris Leachman, Ted Cassidy, Kenneth Mars, Jeff Corey - Dir. George Roy Hill

This 1969 Western encapsulates the genre, with dramatic chase scenes on horseback through breathtaking landscapes, daring robberies of banks and trains, true comradery between cowboys who would risk their lives for one another, and copious amounts of renegade charm. Butch Cassidy (Paul Newman) is the smart, savvy leader of The Hole in the Wall Gang, and his sidekick the Sundance Kid (Robert Redford) ranks among the best shooters the West has known. This combination of brains and menace allows the duo to roam unchallenged, staging petty robberies when needed and otherwise kicking back at the local brothel. But when a six-pack of the best cowboys in nearby states gather to bring down the rebels, using a Native American tracker to follow them across rivers, over mountains, and through deserts; Butch and Sundance decide to flee. Gathering Sundance's girlfriend (Katherine Ross), they make their way to Bolivia via New York City. Unfortunately, old habits die hard, and before they know it, the charismatic criminals find themselves in an all-too-familiar situation, this time facing South American enemies.

Cory in the House - All Star Edition

Kyle Massey, Jason Dolley, John Di Aquino, Rondell Sheridan
Raven might have gone off to college, but that doesn't mean the fun has to end in this spin-off from the popular Disney Channel show THAT'S SO RAVEN. Raven and Cory's dad Victor (Rondell Sheridan) gets a new job, meaning they'll have to move to a new house: the White House! If Cory (Kyle Massey) was trouble before, imagine what he does when he's surrounded by the most powerful people in the world. From stowing away on Air Force One to making speeches, Cory is up to his old tricks and more. CORY IN THE HOUSE - ALL STAR EDITION includes four episodes of the family comedy featuring guest appearances from Raven Symone and Dwayne „The Rock“ Johnson.

Day Break - The Complete Series

Moon Bloodgood, Adam Baldwin, Victoria Pratt, Mitch Pileggi, Meta Golding, Ramon Rodriguez, Ian Anthony Dale, Taye Diggs - Dir. Rob Bowman
The complete series of episodes from ABC show DAY BREAK are included on this collection. The show revolves around Detective Brett Hopper (Taye Diggs), who finds himself reliving the same day over and over again after being framed for the murder of Assistant District Attorney Alberto Garza. Hopper discovers that his family is also in trouble after he goes on the run, and as he wakes up to discover each day playing out in exactly the same manner as the last, he realizes that he must figure out who really killed Garza in order to break the pattern. DAY BREAK is an inventive drama with a premise that strongly resembles the 1993 Harold Ramis movie GROUNDHOG DAY.

Devil's Own (Blu-ray)

Harrison Ford, Brad Pitt, Margaret Colin, Ruben Blades, Treat Williams, Natascha McElhone, George Hearn - Dir. Alan J. Pakula
THE DEVIL'S OWN is an intelligent suspense thriller by award-winning director Alan J. Pakula. Francis „Frankie“ McGuire (Brad Pitt) is an IRA terrorist fueled by the need to avenge his father's execution, which he witnessed as a child in Belfast, Northern Ireland. McGuire comes to New York under an alias on a mission to acquire missiles for use back home in the Northern Irish fight for independence from the British. Needing a hideout, he's placed in the home of Irish-American Tom O'Meara (Harrison Ford), an ethical family man whose background as a veteran cop presents a perfect cover. However, an unexpected bond develops between the two men, and Frankie finds himself viewing O'Meara as a long-lost father figure. Yet the men's friendship is doomed by the weight of Frankie's lies, his secret mission, and the violent world that he belongs to—one that is bound to invade his protector's house. The film, revealing a complex plot and equally complex characters, was the last directorial effort from Pakula, who died in a tragic car accident.

Garmendia, Max Von Sydow - Dir. Julian Schnabel

Celebrated painter and filmmaker Julian Schnabel's third feature finds him reaching new artistic heights with this audacious and personal biopic, based on the best-selling memoir of the same name. The film tells the remarkable tale of Jean-Dominique Bauby (Mathieu Amalric), the world-renowned editor of French ELLE magazine, who suffered a stroke and was paralyzed by the inexplicable „locked in“ syndrome at the age of 43. Bauby's only way of communicating with the outside world was by blinking with one eye, and after several dedicated helpers—a string of impossibly beautiful women (Emmanuelle Seigner, Marie-Josée Croze, Olatz Lopez Garmendia, Anne Consigny)—helped him to speak through this seemingly irrelevant gesture, he began to produce the words that would form his memoir. Along the way, as he swam in and out of consciousness, memories from his past swelled into the present, resulting in a cinematic experience that is at once heart-breaking and hopeful. Schnabel somehow manages to convey Bauby's internal life with remarkable clarity, employing first-person perspective, striking cinematography

Regina Hall, Malinda Williams, Chi McBride - Dir. David E. Talbert

David E. Talbert makes his directorial debut with this comedy about Durell (Ice Cube) and LeeJohn (Tracy Morgan), childhood friends with a knack for getting into trouble.

Despite his continual bad decisions, Durell gets one thing right: he's a good father to his adolescent son. When he learns that the boy's mother, his ex-girlfriend, Omunique (Regina Hall), needs $17,000 to buy her beauty shop or she'll leave Baltimore and move to Atlanta, he's determined to get her the money to keep his son in his life. Meanwhile, LeeJohn needs big money fast to pay off some bad guys. Durell and LeeJohn decide that the collection plate of their local church holds the answer to their money woes. But their attempt to rob the church is foiled in progress: the money is already missing, and the would-be burglars didn't realize there would be people at the church. Finding themselves with a group of parishioners and choir members at their mercy, Durell and LeeJohn have to make some decisions about exactly what kind of men they want to be.

In the Name of the King: A Dungeon Siege Tale

John Rhys-Davies, Jason Statham, Ray Liotta, Leelee Sobieski, Burt Reynolds, Ron Perlman, Claire Forlani, Brian White, Kristanna Loken - Dir. Uwe Boll
Much like cult-favorites LARA CROFT: TOMB RAIDER and MORTAL KOMBAT, IN THE NAME OF THE KING: A DUNGEON SIEGE TALE is a fantasy-adventure based on a popular video game series, Dungeon Siege. The film follows the simple but heroic and fearless Farmer, portrayed by Jason Statham (THE TRANSPORTER, THE ITALIAN JOB), as he gets caught up in the brink-of-war tensions of King Konraid (Burt Reynolds), his back-stabbing nephew Duke Fallow (Matthew Lillard), and the evil wizard, Gallian (Ray Liotta). The film features similar plot-points to the critically acclaimed THE LORD OF THE RINGS trilogy (2001-2003), including a sinister beastly army parallel to LOTR's orcs of Mordor, called the Krugs, responsible for killing members of Farmer's family and kidnapping his wife, Solana (Claire Forlani). High-adventure follows, as Farmer, and his brother-in-law Bastian (Will Sanderson) and friend Norick (Ron Perlman) pursue the Krugs, which lead them to a vast underground lair of enslaved humans, orchestrated by Gallian, as he seeks to create and rule a hellish underworld with magic and mysticism.

Ellen Page, Michael Cera, Allison Janney, J.K. Simmons, Rainn Wilson, Jason Bateman, Jennifer Garner, Olivia Thirlby - Dir. Jason Reitman

The word „quirky“ has become the quick and easy way to describe films such as LITTLE MISS SUNSHINE and LARS AND THE REAL GIRL that straddle the lines between indie and studio films and comedy and drama. While JUNO fits into that same category, this distinctive dramedy is in a class all its own. Ellen Page(X-MEN: THE LAST STAND) stars as Juno, a witty teenage girl whose boredom doesn't lead her to the mall. Instead, she makes a one-time trip into the arms of her best friend Paulie Bleeker (Michael Cera). When Juno discovers that she's pregnant, she's forced to grow up fast as she tries to find adoptive parents for her quickly growing child.

Kite Runner

Atossa Leoni, Khalid Abdalla, Homayon Ershadi, Shaun Toub, Said Tashimaoui - Dir. Marc Forster

Based on the international bestseller by Khaled Hosseini, THE KITE RUNNER is a fascinating historical epic set in 20th-century Afghanistan. In 1978, Amir (Zekiria Ebrahimi) and Hassan (Ahmad Khan Mahmoodzada) are young boys living in Kabul, where Hassan and his father, Ali (Nabi Tanha), work as servants for Amir and his father, Baba (Homayoun Ershadi). Amir and Hassan make an excellent team in kite competitions, with Hassan having a gift for running down kites, but after one contest, he is bullied by Assef (Elham Ehsas), who does unspeakable things to him as Amir watches from a distance and then runs away, not helping his friend. As the Russians and then the Taliban take over Afghanistan, Baba and Amir escape to America, where they make a new home in San Francisco. But even as he graduates from college and meets a beautiful young woman, Soraya (Atossa Leoni), who is also from Kabul, Amir (now played by Khalid Abdalla) is haunted by his cowardice and can't turn down an opportunity to try to make things right when it is offered by his father's old friend Rahim Khan (Shaun Toub)—even if it means risking h

Lars And The Real Girl

Ryan Gosling, Patricia Clarkson, Emily Mortimer, Paul Schneider, Kelli Garner - Dir. Craig Gillespie

As the title character, Ryan Gosling is a strange but likeable young man who manages to keep down a job but keeps mostly to himself. He only leaves the garage where he lives when his older brother Gus (Paul Schneider) and loving sister-in-law Karin (Emily Mortimer) drag him to their house next door for dinner. Lars doesn't take well to questioning, so the disturbing level of his isolation is never openly discussed. It's only when he announces he has a girlfriend in the form of an anatomically correct doll he purchased via the internet that everyone must admit his precarious mental state. No one quite knows how to help Lars, so they play along, careful not to do anything that might push him or Bianca (his plastic fiancée) over the edge. The results are touching efforts on the part of all those who love him to help Lars through what his psychologist (Patricia Clarkson) assures them may be only a stage. Kelli Garner shines as Margo, the real, live girl who Lars seems incapable of seeing. Despite being ignored, Margo hangs in there, hopeful Lars will come around to sanity

Tom Cruise, Meryl Streep, Robert Redford, Michael Pena, Andrew Garfield, Derek Luke, Peter Berg - Dir. Robert Redford

Robert Redford directs and stars in this provocative ode to political activism. Boasting a powerhouse cast that also includes Meryl Streep and Tom Cruise, the film features three storylines centered on the Iraq war. Cruise is Jasper Irving, a rising Republican senator who has summoned Janine Roth (Streep), the head journalist at a large news corporation, to sell her on the government's new military strategy. It's his hope that she in turn will sell the public on the idea.

*Meanwhile, a history professor (Redford) is trying to convince one of his more promising students to strive to make a difference in the world. Professor Malley believes Todd Hayes (Andrew Garfield) to be a bright young man, and he wants to know why Todd has become so apathetic about his schoolwork, and, after the two banter back and forth about the nature of activism, Malley tells him about two of his former students, Ernest and Arian (Michael Pena and Derek Luke), both of whom are currently serving in Iraq. Jennifer Lopez, Ralph Fiennes, Matthew Perry, Salma Hayek, Tyler Posey - Dir. Andy Tennant, Wayne Wang
MAID IN MANHATTAN: Director Wayne Wang (THE JOY LUCK CLUB, SMOKE) updates the familiar Cinderella story in this charming romantic comedy. Jennifer Lopez stars as Marissa Ventura, a beautiful young woman who divides her time between her precocious son, Ty (Tyler Posey), and her housekeeping duties at the Beresford, an upscale Manhattan hotel. When the boyish and affluent politician Christopher Marshall (Ralph Fiennes) shares an amusing elevator ride with Ty, he subsequently meets Marissa. As luck would have it, Marissa is mischievously sporting an exotic Dolce & Gabbana gown belonging to a Beresford tenant, and is mistaken by Christopher for a guest of the hotel. The two undeniably hit it off, but Marissa is unable to reveal her working-class secret, afraid of losing her job. Christopher is completely smitten and makes numerous attempts to locate her, despite the comedic fact that she is often right under his nose. While the film is always lighthearted and fun, it does not shy away from foregrounding ethnic, race, and class issues, devoting much screen time to Marissa's coworkers and their struggles to s

Melies the Magician

Georges Melies' innovations led to some of the earliest examples of fantasy filmmaking in the history of cinema. His creative time lapses, early experiments and use of the cinematic technique gave birth to ways of storytelling still commonly used today. This collection of shorts and experiments ranges from avant-garde to science fiction to documentary and greatly influenced the art of cinema both as a narrative form and a dreamy forum for magical imagery. Included in this collection are the following short films: „The Four Troublesome Heads“ (1898), „Fat and Lean Wrestling

*Match“ (1900), „The One-Man Band“ (1900), „The Man with the Rubber Head“ (1901), „Bluebeard“ (1901), „A Trip to the Moon“ (1902), „The Infernal Boiling Pot“ (1903), „The Infernal Cakewalk“ (1903), „The Music Lover (1903), The Living Playing Cards (1904), Hilarious Posters (1904), Imperceptible Transmutations“ (1904), „Untameable Whiskers“ (1904), „The Scheming Gambler's Paradise“ (1905), and „The Devilish Tenant“ (1909). Ron Livingston, Melissa George, Michael Sheen, Rebecca De Mornay, Hector Elizondo, Yul Vazquez - Dir. Steven Sawalich
Based on a true story, MUSIC WITHIN depicts how one man helped change policies and attitudes toward people with disabilities. Richard Pimental (Ron Livingston) grew up with an emotionally unstable mother (Rebecca De Mornay) and lost his father in a freak accident, so he turns to public speaking in school to find direction in life and seek the approval and praise he needs. After receiving insightful advice from a public speaking mentor (Hector Elizondo), Richard enlists in the army and serves in Vietnam. He returns with impaired hearing and finds it difficult to get a job. Through friendships with Art (Michael Sheen), who has cerebral palsy, and fellow Vietnam vets with various ailments, Richard finds his calling as an employment placement advocate for those with disabilities. Catching the attention of the state governor, his innovative work leads to a breakthrough opportunity: to write the training program for employers and government agencies to improve conditions, hire, and retain employees with disabilities. His efforts ultimately result in the creation of the congressionally approved Americans with

Passage to India

Judy Davis, Peggy Ashcroft, James Fox, Alec Guinness, Victor Banerjee, Nigel Havers, Clive Swift - Dir. David Lean

David Lean returned to filmmaking after a 14-year absence to direct this award-winning adaptation of E.M. Forster's novel. Adela Quested (Judy Davis), a young and spirited Englishwoman, travels to India alongside the somewhat older Mrs. Moore (Peggy Ashcroft). Mrs. Moore's hope is that her son, an administrator in the British Raj, and Adela will wed. Once in India, the two women pay scant heed to the customs followed by English society. They even agree to accompany a „native“—the charming and educated Dr. Aziz (Victor Banerjee)—on a tour of the mystical, ancient Marabar Caves. But their innocent outing turns ugly when Adela emerges from the cave's darkness accusing Aziz of rape. British authorities eagerly pursue—even pressure—Adela to go to court. The truth, however, is not as clear as the bigoted colonial government believes it is.

The Savages

Laura Linney, Philip Seymour Hoffman,

Philip Bosco, Peter Friedman, Gbenga

Akinagbe - Dir. Tamara Jenkins

Director Tamara Jenkins made audiences sit for nearly a decade for her follow-up to the hilarious dark comedy SLUMS OF BEVERLY HILLS, but it's been worth the wait. Like her previous film, THE SAVAGES is a sometimes-funny, sometimes-sad look at family dynamics, but this time around the sense of humor is more wry than riotous. Laura Linney and Philip Seymour Hoffman play Wendy and Jon Savage, a pair of siblings on the cusp of middle age. She's earning money in New York City as a temp as she writes an autobiographical play about their childhood, while he lives in Buffalo, teaching college and finishing a book on Bertolt Brecht. Their estranged father (Philip Bosco) lives across the country, but the Savages reluctantly rush to see him when they learn that he may not be able to take care of himself any longer. Jon and Wendy bicker over problems old and new as they try to figure out what's best for a man they barely know.

Shall We Dance? (Blu-ray)

Richard Gere, Jennifer Lopez, Susan

Sarandon, Stanley Tucci, Bobby

Cannavale, Anita Gillette, Lisa Ann Walter,

Omar Benson Miller, Richard Jenkins, Nick

Cannon - Dir. Peter Chelsom

John Clark (Richard Gere) has everything going for him: a solid career, a beautiful wife (Susan Sarandon) who is both a career woman and Supermom, two great kids, and a gorgeous house in the suburbs. Still, although he hates to admit it, John wants to be happier. Each night during his commute home on the train, he sees the same woman staring forlornly out the window of a dance school. At last, his curiosity gets the better of him, and John finds himself signing up for ballroom dance lessons. Keeping his new secret life from his wife and family, John joyfully discovers his inner Fred Astaire as he and his new friends prepare for an amateur dance competition. At the same time, dance instructor Paulina (Jennifer Lopez), the woman in the window, finds her own passion for dance again, while John's wife becomes convinced that he is having an affair. Stanley Tucci costars in an hilarious turn as John's coworker who is a closet ballroom dancer—sequins and all. Inspired by a Japanese film, SHALL WE DANCE? is directed by Peter Chelsom (INDIAN SUMMER) and also stars Lisa Ann Walter, Anita Gillette, Bobby Cannavale

Starting Out in the Evening

Frank Langella, Lili Taylor, Lauren Ambrose, Adrian Lester, Jessica Hecht - Dir. Andrew Wagner
Though he's spent most of his career as a character actor in supporting roles, Frank Langella gives the lead performance of a lifetime in STARTING OUT IN THE EVENING, based on the novel by Brian Morton. Flanked by Lili Taylor and Lauren Ambrose, Langella is the central piece in a film that focuses on its characters. The film begins with writing writer Leonard Schiller (Langella, SUPERMAN RETURNS), a man who feels as obsolete as the typewriter he is pounding away at. Though he has four novels to his credit, he has been working on his fifth for a decade. Enter Heather Wolfe (Ambrose, SIX FEET UNDER), a grad student who plans to write her thesis on Schiller's work. She cajoles the reluctant man into helping her, and they begin a curious friendship. Meanwhile, Schiller's daughter Ariel (Taylor, SIX FEET UNDER) struggles not only with her elderly father, but also with her own desire to have children as she approaches 40. She also grapples with the decision of reconnecting with an ex-boyfriend (Adrian Lester, HUSTLE).

Sweeney Todd: The Demon Barber of Fleet Street

Johnny Depp, Helena Bonham-Carter, Alan Rickman, Timothy Spall, Sacha Baron Cohen, Jamie Campbell Bower, Jayne Wisener - Dir. Tim Burton
With its rivers of blood, this adaptation of the Stephen Sondheim musical isn't for the faint of heart—or stomach. But thanks to the black humor, impeccable production design, and gorgeous music, Tim Burton fans will want to sing after seeing SWEENEY TODD. For his sixth collaboration with the director, Johnny Depp stars as Benjamin Barker aka Sweeney Todd, a barber falsely imprisoned by Judge Turpin (Alan Rickman). After leaving prison, he comes back to Victorian London to find his wife poisoned and his daughter held captive. As he plots his revenge, Sweeney joins forces with Mrs. Lovett (Helena Bonham Carter), and while he preys on clients asking for a shave, his new partner turns the bodies into baked goods. But the judge still lives, and the razor-wielding madman wants his vengeance.

There Will Be Blood

Daniel Day-Lewis, Paul Dano, Ciaran Hinds, Kevin J. O'Connor, Dillon Freasier - Dir. Paul Thomas Anderson

Director Paul Thomas Anderson's THERE WILL BE BLOOD is a masterly, unflinching examination of a consummately evil man. Daniel Plainview (via a transcendent performance by the great Daniel Day-Lewis) is, as he likes to remind those around him, an oil man: he finds it, he drills for it, and he makes money from it. Following a tip from a visitor named Paul Sunday, whose family sits atop a veritable ocean of oil, Plainview travels to the town of New Boston, California, with his young son. Sunday's preacher brother Eli (both roles are played by the excellent Paul Dano) grudgingly accepts Plainview's ambitions under the condition that he help fund the town church. As Plainview's plans come to fruition, a series of events begin to fracture the insular world he has constructed for himself, pitting Plainview against Sunday and forcing him to become even more vindictive and ruthless.

Walk Hard: The Dewey Cox Story

Kristen Wiig, Jenna Fischer, Tim Meadows, John C. Reilly - Dir. Jake Kasdan

*Somewhere between pitch-perfect parodies from Christopher Guest and Co. (such as THIS IS SPINAL TAP and A MIGHTY WIND) and slapstick spoofs (such as AIRPLANE and the NAKED GUN) resides the farcical biopic WALK HARD: THE DEWEY COX STORY. Taking the critically lauded Johnny Cash biopic WALK THE LINE as its most obvious inspiration, WALK HARD plows its way through every rock star cliché—from drug use and rampant sex to artistic self-indulgence and spiritual redemption—laying waste to all of them with unremitting blasts of brilliantly lowbrow comedy. Written by Judd Apatow and starring Jon C. Reilly in the title role, WALK HARD is a deliciously basic synthesis of any number of ponderous biographical narratives with the poetic raunchiness of Apatow films, such as SUPERBAD and KNOCKED UP, and the most lovingly inane aspects of Reilly's role as Cal Naughton Jr. in TALLEDEGA NIGHTS. In fact, fans will have a blast spotting the endless array of cameos by the gifted comic actors who pepper all of those films, including Jonah Hill, Kristin Wiig, Ed Helms, and Jack McBrayer, among many others. ## Wild Wild West - The Complete Fourth Season

Charles Aidman, Robert Conrad, Michael Dunn, Ross Martin, Doug Henderson
While following in the tradition of conventional Westerns like GUNSMOKE or HAVE GUN WILL TRAVEL, the innovative 1960s television series THE WILD WILD WEST tweaked the genre by infusing science-fiction elements and James Bond-like espionage plotlines. As dashing handsome secret agent James T. West (Robert Conrad) and his master-of-disguise sidekick, Artemus Gordon (Ross Martin), investigated crimes in the late-1800s Wild West, the series distinguished itself with anachronistically high-tech gadgetry (a pioneering style that would later be come to known as „steampunk”) and an odd assemblage of villains that included the delightfully demented dwarf, Miguelito Loveless (Michael Dunn). Eccentric and visionary, the series is resurrected in this collection of remastered episodes from the fourth season. Television, Action/Adventure FF S

Black Sabbath - The Dio Years

Black Sabbath
A new injection of life surged through the veins of heavy metal legends Black Sabbath in 1979, with the remaining members of the group moved quickly to replace hell-raising singer Ozzy Osbourne with former Rainbow vocalist Ronnie James Dio. The unholy alliance of Dio and Sabbath immediately produced the huge-selling album HEAVEN AND HELL, and although the charismatic singer didn't stay with Sabbath for very long, his presence was welcomed once again when he rejoined the group in 2007. This compilation includes many of the audio and visual highlights from Dio's tenure in the band, including live clips of „Neon Knights” and „Die Young.”

Lindsey Buckingham - Live at the Bass Performance Hall

Singer-songwriter Lindsey Buckingham's career may have taken off after joining Fleetwood Mac (along with his partner, Stevie Nicks) on New Years Eve in 1974, but the talented composer has enjoyed a lengthy career both before and after his tenure in the band. In 2006 Buckingham released his fourth solo album, UNDER THE SKIN, and this performance is taken from a 2007 tour to promote the album. Buckingham takes to the stage in Fort Worth, Texas, where he runs through tracks that span his entire career, including Fleetwood Mac favorites such as „Go Your Own Way” and „Big Love.” Also included is some candid behind-the-scenes footage from the show, which was shot by Buckingham himself.

Trevor Romain - Bullies Are A Pain In the Brain

At some point or another, most kids have to deal with bullies, whether it's on sports teams, at school, or even at summer camp. Combining animation and live action, BULLIES ARE A PAIN IN THE BRAIN addresses this topic in a fun, humorous manner. Award-winning children's book author and illustrator Trevor Romain helps Jack and Sky deal with even the most overpowering personalities, while giving them useful tips on how to avoid being bullied, and dispelling common myths about what makes a bully tick.

Trevor Romain - How To Do Homework Without Throwing Up

Like many children, Jack and Sky do not always enjoy doing their homework. But with a little help from children's book author and illustrator Trevor Romain, these animated characters may start to view homework in an entirely different way. By turning their daily routine into a wild safari adventure, Trevor shows Jack and Sky that even work can be fun. Using his signature blend of silly humor and genuine concern, Trevor offers practical tips on how to create a homework schedule, find a homework buddy, start the hardest work first, and prepare more nutritious snacks. Exciting storylines and music make this educational program something kids will truly enjoy.

Steep

Narrated by SIX FEET UNDER's Peter Krause, STEEP is an exciting examination of the dangerous sport of extreme skiing. The film was written and directed by Mark Obenhaus, a journalism veteran who has spent more than 30 years working on incisive television documentaries (including at ABC News with Peter Jennings, to whom the film is dedicated), STEEP follows the exploits of a dozen current and former adventure skiers who have risked their lives to ski down remote mountains where no one has skied before. They take helicopters and climb mountains to reach the points at which they head downhill, with no signs or nicely carved paths to lead them on their way. They never know when they're going to come across a tree, a rock, or even a cliff as they slice down breathtaking vistas. Obenhaus, who also serves as one of the executive producers of the film, captures amazing runs in British Columbia, France, Iceland, Wyoming, and Alaska, featuring such athletes as Doug Coombs, Chris Davenport, Ingrid Backstrom, Shane McConkey, Andrew McLean, and Seth Morrison. Older legends such as Anselme Baud, Bill Briggs, and Stef

Victory at Sea - Complete Series

The drama of World War II's exciting war at sea is brilliantly detailed in this legendary, award-winning historical epic that has been hailed as one of the most influential documentaries in television history. The 26 half-hour episodes were compiled from over 13,000 hours of authentic combat footage shot by the U.S., British, German, and Japanese navies during every major naval engagement of World War II, from the Nazi Wolf-packs to the Battle of Okinawa. Narrated by Leonard Graves with original music by famed composer Richard Rodgers, this 1952 series is a landmark classic that still remains the most comprehensive account of World War II's naval battles.
