Middle School homework line a hot one

Jim White, Lowell Director of Instruction, said back in April that he'd wait to see how many calls come in through Homework Hotline before critiquing it.

If usage of the hotline is the barometer, than the mercury has blown right through the top.

In terms of number of teachers in the program and the number of calls, Lowell Middle School is on a recordsetting pace.

"Based on the number of calls received at the Middle School, it's been extremely like to hook up two more schools in the fall (high school and Runciman)."

BURNS

We frequently see patients in the office with minor, and sometimes more significant, burn injuries. In today's article we are going to review some preventative measures you can take to avoid burns and how to treat minor burns at home.

To avoid accidental scalding, turn your water heater down below 124 degrees. Burns will not occur until after four minutes of exposure at this temperature. Burns can occur after one second of exposure if the water temperature is above 160 degrees, and after five seconds if the water temperature is 140 degrees.

Test the temperature of all food prior to serving. A bottle heated in a microwave oven may feel warm while the formula inside is scalding hot.

Keep all chemicals and caustic agents out of reach of small children. Lock them in storage cabinets if possible. Store flammables, including cigarette lighters and matches, properly.

Install smoke detectors and check them frequently. Replace the batteries every six months. Use electric outlet covers if you have small children.

Practice a fire evacuation route. Remind your children to crawl below smoke and to feel doors before opening. If the door feels hot, do not open it. If a persons clothing should catch fire they should "stop, drop and roll" - stop running, drop to the ground and roll until the flames are extinguished.

If a minor burn should occur do not put butter on the burn. You should cool the burn immediately under cold water and this can be repeated for up to 15 minutes every hour. Minor burns without blisters or broken skin can be safely treated at home by covering the burn with aloe vera cream or Eucenin. Avoid trauma to the affected area and avoid exposure to heat. Take acetaminophen as needed for pain control.

Second degree burns which blister or weep should probably be evaluated initially by your physician. You should cover the burn with an antibiotic ointment and then place a sterile dressing over the site. This dressing is usually changed once or twice per day. If possible, elevate the burned area above the level of your heart to prevent swelling.

A water agreement on paper appears to solve many problems. Without an agreement, the problems remain and the solutions, while viable, are not ideal

"There is an agreement between the entities as to what's needed, but not an agreement as to the cost allocation," Lowell City Manager Dave Pasquale said. "We must try to come up with something that is fair and affordable to both sides."

Of the 11 basic improvement items listed by the City engineer firm of Fishbeck, Thompson, Carr and Huber that would be needed within the City to provide water service to the Township, Pasquale said eight of them should be done anyway.

"How soon they would Deed to be done is hard to say. How long we can go on the present system is also hard to say," Pasquale says. "I guess it comes down to whether the City wants to limp along with

•FFA celebrates productive year at annual banquet

The annual FFA Banquet is the time of year when all FFA members, families and business people are honored for their work in FFA throughout the past year, whether it be behind the scenes organization, chaperones on trips or state winning contest.

The 1992 annual FFA banquet was held April 30, in the Middle School Cafeteria. There were approximately 190 parents, members, and guests present at this festive event.

Among the honored guests was FFA advisor Pete Siler and his wife, Sue. Siler was awarded the Michigan Outstanding Agriscience Educator award this year for all the time, effort and patience he's put into the last 17 e years to make the Lowell Chapter of FFA one of the best in the nation. of the community are to the Lowell Chapter, the Honorary Chapter Degree was awarded to the Dennis Brown family and the Jerry Richmond family for all the hard work and dedication they've put into the Chapter.

In the middle of the cafeteria, eight chairs were set up to represent a van. In the drivers seat sat Siler and in the passengers seat sat a "Super Mom," Chaperon impersonator. After a graphic demonstration of what it takes to take a van load of kids 750 miles to Kansas City, the "Super Mom" award was given to Luanne Kaeb, Donna Oesch, Linda Scott and Jan Mol. These four women chaperoned, helped practice speeches, made cookies, etc.

cultural experiences with their new American families. P.I.E. currently has programs to P.I.E. representatives match students with host families by finding common interests and life-styles through an informal in-home meeting Prospective host families are able to review student applications and select the "perfect match". As there are no "typical" host families, P.I.E. can fit a student into just about any situation, whether it be a single parent, a childless couple, a retired couple or a large family.

Lowell area families interested in learning more about student exchange or arranging for a meeting may call P.I.E., toll-free, at 1-800-245-6232. The agency also has opportunities available for community volunteers.

Lowell girls get state's top billing; Arrows win 2nd league crown

The 1992 O-K White Girls' Golf Conference Meet was a of the gaping hole between Lowell and the rest of the league.

Lowell's 14-0 dual meet record in the O-K White Confernce, with an average win of nearly 23 strokes spoke volumes and Northview.

Erin Nausieda was the match medalist against the Rangers and 'Cats with a round of 42.

Monday's conference meet merely dittoed what was played out during the regular season.

Lowell's 393 team score did not reflect the club's best play of the season, but it was still good enough for a 33 stroke win over its nearest competitor, Wyoming Park's score of 426. The top three scores of the day coincidentally also belonged to the Red Arrows. Erin Nausieda was the meet

When its the Jenison girls' golf team. Jenison's Lauri Berles fired an incredible 71 over 18 holes medalist with an 87. She shot a 43 going out and 44 coming to lead the host to a five-stroke victory over the Red Arrows back at the Broadmore Golf Course. at the Jenison Invitational. Megan Leach was second for Lowell with a 98. She carded a 48 on the front nine and a 50 coming home. Tracy Burrows struggled a little but still managed a 100.

She shot a 47 on the first nine and a 53 on the back nine. Connie Colburn gave Lowell its fourth score with a 108. She shot a 52 on the front nine and a 56 on the back nine.

Although her score was not used, April McClure carded a 128 for the Red Arrows.

"The course played tough. It was long and the grass was thick and deep," Lowell coach Rick White said.

Making the top 10 in the All-Conference meet were Nausieda; Burrows; Leach; Rogers' Karri Dykema, 103; Tara Helenius, Wyoming Park, 103; Christie Nelson, Rogers, 104; Gina Pellerito, FHC, 104; Jenni Streeter, FHC, 105; Jodee Heldman, Northview, 105; and Angie Neureuther, Wyoming Park, 105.

"We didn't play our best golf. However the girls wanted to prove today under the same circumstances and conditions it was the best team in the O-K White," White said. "Last year no one expected us to win it. This year everyone expected us to win the league. Repeating is always tough."

"The girls will have to turn it up a notch at the regional on Monday," White said. The Red Arrows will have the home course advantage as the regional will be held at Deer Run.

Jenison Invitational

When is one better than the sum of all its parts?

"Lauri was head and shoulders above the rest of the world on Saturday," Lowell coach Rick White said.

Lowell's Erin Nausieda finished with an 88. Megan Leach fired a 93, while Tracy Burrows carded a 94. Connie Colburn finished with a 102.

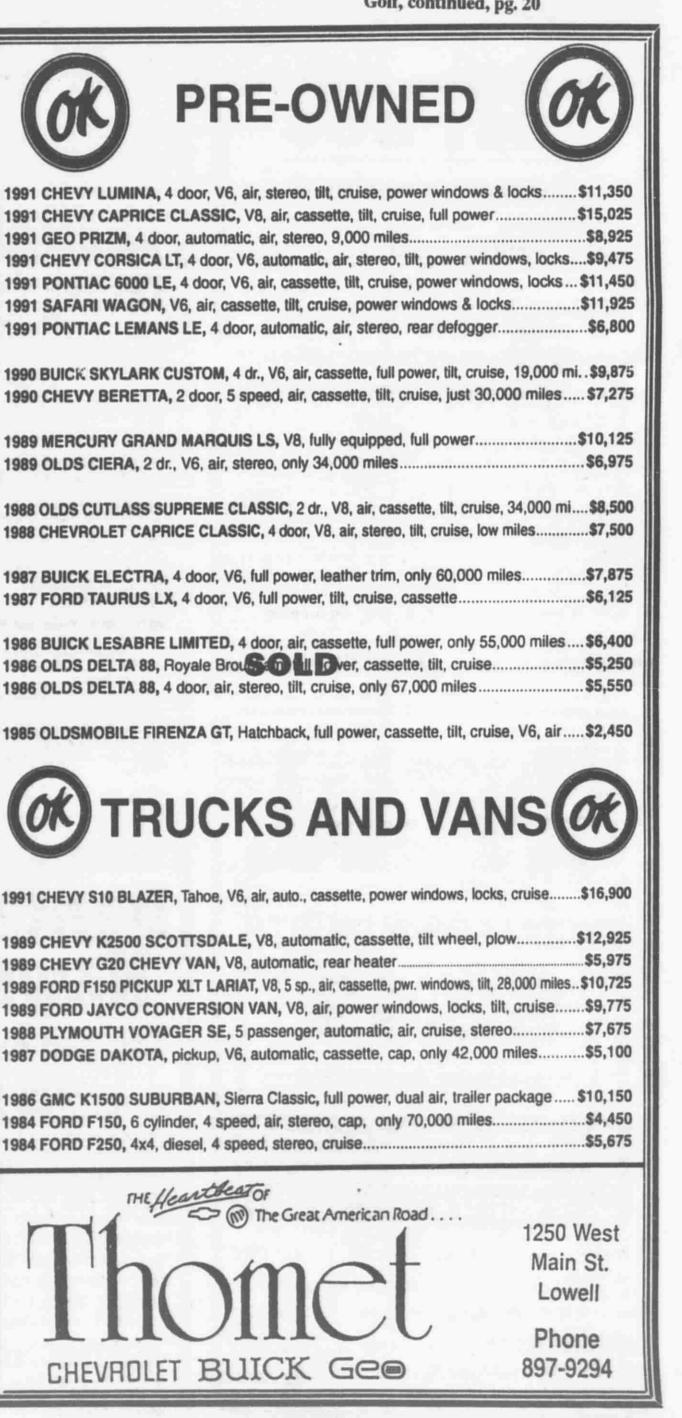

Jenison finished with a 372 team total. Lowell came home with a 377. No other team was within 50 strokes of Jenison.

It was something the Lowell girls' golfers couldn't believe, and something their coach didn't want to talk about.

In their first full week of defending their number one state ranking, the Red Arrow girls set a club record score at Deer Run Golf Course. Against Forest Hills Central and Northview on Thursday, Lowell carded a 187, satisfying Lowell coach Rick White who has been pushing for a score in the 180s all year, or did they?

Following Thursday's record-setting team score, he asked the girls if they couldn't do better. White got a round of "Aaah coach, aren't you ever happy."

White, not wanting his club to become complacent, continues to hold up a new carrot for his club to shoot after.

O-K White Conference Champions Lowell girls fight off a strong challenge from Northview to gain 2nd consecutive title

Not even a misalignment could digress the Lowell Red Arrows charge for a second consecutive outright O-K White Conference track championship Friday night at Northview.

For 11 events, Lowell battled a young and talented Northview squad before celebrating its second crown in as many years. Lowell won the meet with 98 points, Northview placed second with 93.

In the end it was the speed of Heather Gowen and the endurance of Michelle Oliver that put the Red Arrows over the top.

Early on it seemed as though a power greater than its opponents may have been trying to put the defending champs under.

A misalignment by track officials in the 100 dash may have cost Lowell's Heather Gowen her first loss in four years in the conference event.

Gowen, showing the class of a champion, an attribute she has carried with her for four years, showed no signs of disenchantment either after the race or on the awards stand.

Instead, the all-time Lowell girls' leader in championships with 13, kept focused on the bigger picture - a conference championship.

Leading by one point, 72-71 with three events left, Gowen laced'em up for the 200 dash. The Lowell senior covered the 200-meters in a grand time of 26.593, defeating Northview freshman Elisha Frye.

The victory pushed Lowell's lead to a precarious three, over the 'Cats. If the lead was to be stretched it would have to be done over a long haul. When Lowell looks to distance, it looks to Oliver.

The Red Arrow sophomore ran in the shadow of the events leader, Amy Shimota, for roughly 7-3/4 laps, before pulling away to win easily in the 3200-meter run in a time of 12:46.38.

"Oliver was there for us when we needed her," Lowell coach Kathy Talus said. "She ran a great race. And, what can you say about Heather Gowen, she's the best girls track athlete I've ever coached. She finishes her career at Lowell with 13 O-K White Conference individual track championships."

Talus said she was relieved and yet very happy with the win. "I'm going to savor this one," she said. "Now it's time to get the girls ready for the regional."

Any conference track meet championship has to be a team effort, Lowell's wasn't any different.

Following Thursday's field events, Lowell led the pack of eight with 38 points. Red Arrow Brandi Phillips earned a second in the shot put with a toss of 30'1/2. Wyoming Parks' Linda Jubbs won the event with a distance of 31'7-1/ 4. The Red Arrows received some unexpected help from Courtney Morse, who placed sixth with a throw of 29'3-3/

In the discus, Phillips again placed second to Jubbs. The Viking won the event with a mark of 107'10. Phillips came in at 94'11.

Gowen left her winning mark in the long jump, reaching 17'2-1/2. Lowell's Chris McClure was fifth at 14'11-1/2 and Kortney Gowen was sixth at 14'9-1/2.

Rhea Bundy works toward the finish line for Lowell, in the O-K White Conference meet.

"The girls look at the ranking as an honor. But have downplayed it a little bit because they aren't sure they are number one and feel they have some work to do to prove it." Lowell finished the regular at 18-0 in the O-K White Conference with wins against Wyoming Park and Zeeland on Monday and Northview and Central on Thursday. Thursday's record setting team score of 187 was set up by the Arrows' number one and two players. Erin Nausieda fired a 42 and Tracy Burrows, playing with a cut-up right hand

"Erin and Tracy have been consistent all year for us. It helps when you can depend on two scores like that," White said. His third and fourth players have shown they know a little bit about consistency too. Megan Leach came home Thursday with a 50 and Connie Colburn walked off the ninth green with

On Monday at Deer Run, Nausieda and Burrows tied for medalist honors with rounds of 43. Colburn came in at 54 and Leach shot a 56. Lowell defeated Wyoming Park and Zeeland with a 196. The Vikings shot a 225 and Zeeland carded a 248. It was the same three clubs on Tuesday, but this time at the par 36 Crestview course. Lowell won the match with a 190. Nausieda was the medalist with a 44. Burrows fired a 48, Leach and Colburn each shot a 49. Lowell's four scores were better than the best scores from Park and Zeeland. The Vikings finished with a 217 and Zeeland carded a 261.

Between Nausieda and Burrows, the tournament medalist honors should be won by Lowell as well. It's been Nausieda or Burrows as the medalist in every league dual meet this season. Girls' Golf State Rankings

The long and the short of the O-K White boys' conference and the sprints the two mile forced Lowell to share the O-K White Conference title with the Rangers. This year, a strong performance by FHC in the sprints prevented Lowell from forcing the Rangers into sharing the conference title with the Red Arrows.

"We were one good sprinter away from challenging FHC and EGR in the sprints," Lowell coach Keith Boeve said. The Red Arrow coach and Central coach Bob Siegel both Huizenga, Tom Mull, Dave Stouffer and Kyle Boston win- 17.02.

Lowell Rotary underwrites workplace skills literacy program

Lowell Director of School and Community Services, Dick Korb identified a need.

The Lowell Rotary Club and its President, Jim Lang, fulfilled that need.

The need Korb and Lowell Community Education were faced with was in the areas of basic skills and training and retraining for area businesses and their employees.

"The technical training and retraining would be fulfilled by Grand Rapids Community College," Korb said. "Lowell Community will work with businesses and its employees on basic skills such as reading, writing, grammar, math, communication and problem solving skills."

Korb emphasizes that a number of the local businesses in the areas-identified the needs they would like addressed.

The cost to Lowell Community Education for books, supplies and materials for a workplace skills literacy program is $1,050.

Enter the Lowell Rotary Club. Lang informed Korb that the Rotary Club would underwrite the entire amount for such a program.

Following a presentation by Korb, five Lowell businesses identified their company's needs.

Along with fulfilling basic skills needs on site of the local businesses, Korb said, Lowell Community Education is also looking to provide a high school completion program.

"This is a real example of how school and business partnerships can assist local business. The end product is employees better able to serve their company," Korb said. "The company becomes more competitive and diverse. The more diverse, the more the company has to offer."

The program allows for the resources and teachers for this program at a lower cost than high-tech workshops.

"Most importantly, this program does not cost the local taxpayers one dime," Korb said. "Lowell Community Education provides the service and the funding is provided by the state and private grants such as the one attained through the Lowell Rotary Club.
