Oceans Creative Floral & Gift Presentation

Oceans Floral is a family owned Kiwi business. From small beginnings in 1988, Oceans has grown to be a major player in the floral and gift industry. We have remained committed to providing a wide variety of good quality innovative products. We strive to provide our customers with a range of items that are at the leading edge of market trends.

Our showrooms are conveniently located in New Zealand's major flower markets. We have one branch in Auckland situated in Mt Wellington at the New Zealand Flower Trade Centre and our Christchurch branch is located at the South Island Flower Trade Centre in Wigram.

We are able to service customers throughout New Zealand, with the ability to provide personalised assistance via our nationally based sales team or our experienced customer service team working from one of our two showrooms. Orders are easily dispatched throughout the country from our head office and warehouse facility located in Auckland.

We stock various vessels including glass, ceramics, Stonefusion, baskets, tins and flax. Our packaging supplies are versatile and span the floral, gift and event industries, they include BOPP (cello), sleeves, floral wrap, paper, tissue, giftwrap, boxes, bags and ribbons.

Our accessories range consists of floral and decorative accessories, including floral foam, wedding supplies, flower care products and toys.

Last year we expanded our business to include an extensive range of high quality licensed and non-licensed foil and latex balloons. New designs are added regularly and you can view and order the full selection on our website.

We also provide a range of limited edition products of a seasonal nature that are not featured in this catalogue. Please consult with our sales team for updates on these and other new products.

We can assist you with the supply of products for any celebration, event or occasion including Christmas, Valentine's Day, Easter, Anzac Day and Mother's Day as well as weddings, children's parties, product launches and corporate events.

Understanding our product codes

Oceans Floral's product codes consist of two parts, a six digit product code followed by a four digit colour code (and in a few instances a letter to signify the finish).

In our catalogue we list the product code first and then the colour code will be listed below under "Colours Available" with the colour description. When placing your order by phone, email or fax we require the six digit product code followed by the four digit colour code. When searching for a product on our website, use the six digit product code and once you find it you can select the colour swatches to find the colours you require.

What are the best cut flower care rules for florists?

As a florist, there is a lot you have to consider when it comes to keeping your flowers beautiful and fresh, from the day they arrive till the day they are sold. And even after that moment, you want your customer to be able to enjoy your flowers as long as possible.

Chrysal put together a list of care tips that you might find useful, so you can focus on the creative side.

- Purchase flowers of sufficient maturity and quality.
- Pay attention to the quality of the stem; check for sturdiness, colour and the absence of damage.
- Remove wilted or damaged flowers and flowers with Botrytis.
- Do not spray water on buds and flowers as this increases the chance of fungal growth (Botrytis).
- Do not use metal or antique crystal vases for containers; if you do, use an acid resistant liner.
- Do not use unprotected or contaminated organic binding material.
- Refrain from damaging the stems – remove the thorns only if absolutely necessary.
- Cut at least 2 cm off the stem, 5-10 cm is better.
- Cut the stems with a sharp knife or secateurs at an angle to prevent damaging and flattening of the stem.
- Place all the flowers in clean containers in a solution of Chrysal Professional 2.
- Give flowers that arrive wilted a chance to re-hydrate in their packaging whilst in a solution of Chrysal Professional 2, in a cool, dark place for several hours.
- Always add flower food to your finished bouquet and provide your customer the relevant advice about the water and the use of cut flower food.
- Add a speciality food, if available, for specific flowers and ideally provide a second sachet for topping up so that your customer can enjoy their flowers as long as possible.

What are the best cut flower care tips for consumers?

- Always buy fresh flowers to enjoy them as long as possible.
- Ensure that you have enough cut flower food for the size of the bouquet and the most suitable vase (min. vase size is 1 litre) – this should be attached to the bouquet you buy. If not, always ask for it!
- Always use a clean vase (do not use metal or antique crystal vases) and fresh cold tap water.
- Add flower food, following the instruction on the back of the pack, regarding the volume of water.
- Cut at least 2 cm off the stem, 5-10 cm is better.
- Cut the stems with a sharp, clean knife or secateurs at an angle, to prevent damaging and flattening of the stem.
- Remove lower leaves which otherwise will be in the vase water, but don't remove the thorns.
- Be careful where you place your bouquet; flowers don't like draughts, direct sunlight, proximity to a heater, smoke and the gasses of ripening fruits!
- Top up with fresh water and the same flower food when the water has decreased to about 1/3 of the height of the vase.
- Enjoy your flowers!
