Scurlock Studio Records, Subseries 4.5: Black and white negatives in cold storage arranged by job number

NMAH.AC.0618.S04.05

David Haberstich and Vanessa Broussard-Simmons

The collection was acquired with assistance from the Eugene Meyer Foundation. Elihu and Susan Rose and the Save America's Treasures program, provided funds to stabilize, organize, store, and create digital surrogates of some of the negatives. Processing and encoding funded by a grant from the Council on Library and Information Resources.

Restrictions

Collection is open for research.

Series 8: Business Records, Subseries 8.1: Studio Session Registers are restricted. Digital copies available for research. See repository for details.

Gloves must be worn when handling unprotected photographs and negatives. Special arrangements required to view negatives due to cold storage. Using negatives requires a three hour waiting period. Contact the Archives Center at 202-633-3270.

Conditions Governing Use

When the Museum purchased the collection from the Estate of Robert S. Scurlock, it obtained all rights, including copyright. The earliest photographs in the collection are in the public domain because their term of copyright has expired. The Archives Center will control copyright and the use of the collection for reproduction purposes, which will be handled in accordance with its standard reproduction policy guidelines. Archives Center cost-recovery and use fees may apply when requesting reproductions.

Biographical Note

The Scurlock photographic studio was a fixture in the Shaw area of Washington, D.C. from 1911 to 1994, and encompassed two generations of photographers, Addison N. Scurlock (1883-1964) and his sons George H. (1920-2005) and Robert S. (1916-1994). More...

Scope and Contents

The materials document the orders placed by the clients of the Scurlock Studio. The photographs primarily depict individual portrait sittings but there are also portraits of children, groups, and other subjects.

Scan: 618nL0049391-01pg.tif

Silver gelatin on cellulose acetate film sheet, 10 x 8 in.

Identified by Ms. Alwilter T. Wilson in an e-mail to David Haberstick, Feb. 2, 2004. "The mother is Mary Altona Goodrich and the lady standing 2nd from the left is Mary Alice Goodrich (Branch). Mary Alice died on 26 December 2001... Mary Alice [Goodrich] and [Ms. Wilson] were classmates at Florida A & M University and joined Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority during that time..."

Caption on negative: "49370 Mrs. M.A. Goodrich 6 8x10 reg." Group portrait of six women. "Dec. 3" and "Dec. 13" without year written on original envelope. Retouching on faces. No edge imprint present, but probably "Defender Safety Base."

Fingerprints; silvering; curls rapidly when exposed to heat.

Published in Keith W. Jenkins, "Picture of Success," Washington Post Magazine, Feb. 1, 2004, p. 12.

"Ready as soon as possible" written on original envelope. Note on envelope: "Mrs Louisa Mozee; 3 8x10 Dup.; April 24, 1947." Retouching on face. According to a great-niece of the subject, Christine Willis (in an email, 27 April 2015), Sadie Mozee was born Louisa Marshall in the United Kingdom. In an article about air raids and wartime difficulties in England, Theatre Section, Afro-American, Sept. 6, 1941, it was stated that Ms. Mozee was living at 2107 Second St., N.W., Washington, and was concerned about relatives in England. (https://news.google.com/newspapers?nid=2211&dat=19410906&id=4epfAAAAIBAJ&sjid=QgMGAAAAIBAJ&pg=3944,58) This article, however, states that she was born in Cairo, Egypt, to an American mother and Egyptian father, then raised in London. She had a stage career as a singer beginning at age fifteen, touring Europe with the Dark Town Entertainers. She came to the U.S. with the Black Bird Revue in 1929. She met her husband Frank Mozee in Saratoga Springs, New York. Fingerprints; slight warping; curls when exposed to heat; no edge imprint. Names: Mozsee, Sadee

[Drawing : black-and-white copy photograph, cellulose acetate photonegative], undated

1 Item (Silver gelatin on cellulose acetate film sheet.; 5" x 7".)

Photographer: Scurlock Studio (Washington, D.C.)

Artist: Freelon, Allan Randall, 1895-1960

Porter, James A. (James Amos), 1905-1970

Creator: Eastman Kodak Company (film manufacturer)

Language: English.

Notes: Copy of drawing of a fisherman loading fish in a (presumably) icebox. No ink on negative. "Eastman Safety Kodak Film" edge imprint. Found in an envelope marked "Porter Drawings" and therefore attributed to Dr. James A. Porter. However, Ms. Coni Uzelac, daughter of Dr. Porter, suggests that it may be by Allan Freelon instead (e-mail message, 19 November 2008).

Good condition.
