

Aerangis mooreana

Native of: Madagascar

Habitat: Epiphytic in forest from sea level to 700m growing in shade.

Description: small plant with medium white flowers with a pinkish spur. Plants are free flowering with up to 18 flowers on a stem and first flowering can be within two years of deflasking.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow this plant mounted and grow it hot (min18°C) in low light.

Flowering season: summer

Flask to flowering approx: 2yrs

Seedling source: Kath Fairhurst