
Salvia microphylla 'Wendy's Surprise'

Description: Shrubby perennial. Given to us by Andrew Humphries of Wollerton Old Hall Gardens. This plant arose there recently as a seedling from S.microphylla 'San Carlos Festival' and produces many more and much redder flowers on a more vigorous plant. Shows great promise

Hardiness: Drought tolerant. Hardy in most areas if given full sun and good drainage

Height: 90cm approx