Welcome!

Possibly the world's only catalogue selling this year's fresh seeds!

We are noticing increasing requests for garden plants that will survive and even thrive in the new hot dry summers we seem to be destined to suffer. Recently, we were asked by a local community group to help transform the featureless inside of the Penn Inn roundabout under the A380. We helped provide xerophytic plants, such as kniphofias, agaves, echiums and yuccas and gave advice to the volunteers and together helped create an attractive drought-resistant Mediterranean garden. Trees and spring bulbs have recently been added, so have a quick look when you come on holiday next summer.

Some of our new introductions....

- ❖ Dierama 'Ripe Cherries' - Bred here at Plant World, these exciting new dwarf dieramas will be gems in everyone's garden, their pendent bells coming in a range of colours.
- ❖ Linaria 'Plummy' - We have crossed Linaria purpurea with Linaria dalmatica, the result is a strong-growing vigorous plant with attractive rubbery grey foliage, taller than its parents, bearing sizeable heads of bluish-purple "snapdragon" flowers.
- ❖ Euphorbia 'Dwarf Black Pearl' - Bursting with sweet nectar, these striking flowers which open in spring and stay in place until the first frosts, are a magnet for bees and butterflies.
- ❖ Raspberry 'Black Jewel' - Very rarely available, seeds of this exciting, completely hardy plant, which comes true from seed, produce vigorous, fast-growing and erect black raspberry plants.

Above - The new drought-tolerant garden at the Penn Inn flyover/junction on the A380 just over a mile away from Plant World. See the map on the inside back cover for its location.

We continue to produce new plants, some being quite bizarre, and others very garden-worthy! "Twister erysimums" a unique novelty, are compact long-lived plants with erect spires of semi-opened flowers resembling candles. Most unusual plants! Traditional gems such as dieramas or "Angels Fishing Rods" continue to increase in popularity, and we have several new ones including dwarf Dierama "Ripe Cherries" with pendent flowers from red to purple.

How To Sow Your Seeds

- ❖ Sow all seeds as soon as you receive them unless otherwise advised on the packet.
- ❖ Use sterile compost. We recommend John Innes.
- ❖ Sow seed thinly and cover to about twice the depth of the seed size with fine grit or coarse sand.
- ❖ Do remember mousetraps and slug pellets. (Note: Please be careful if you have children or pets).
- ❖ Sow cold-germinating seeds in a cold frame or unheated greenhouse.
- ❖ Do be patient. Some seedlings appear in a few days whilst others may take several months, or even a year or more. DO NOT throw the seed tray away!
- ❖ Store warm-germinating seed in a fridge and sow in March or April in a heated greenhouse or propagator or in a well-lit spot on a window sill.
- ❖ Do not leave seedlings in a seed tray for too long. They often simply stop growing.

Have you discovered something new? A new Meconopsis perhaps?!
