HITS OF THE WEEK

SINGLES

SLY & THE FAMILY STONE, "RUNNIN' AWAY" (Stone Flower, BMI). Though Sly the lead vocalist is not much in evidence here, Sly the innovator, the driving force, is omnipresent. "Family Affair" follow-up is sheer rhythmic delight and what's better? Epic 10829.

SLEEPERS

B. J. THOMAS, "ROCK AND ROLL LULLABY" (Summerhill/Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI). A chart return rests assured for B. J. on the strength of this Cynthia Weil-Barry Mann tune. They wrote his "I Just Can't Help Believing" smash. Hit! Scepter 12344.

ALBUMS

BREAD, "BABY I'M-A WANT YOU." Bread just keeps getting better, and this neat rock package will thrill fans. Contains numerous hit singles, including "Mother Freedom" and title track. A super album by one of the finest super groups. Elektra EKS 75015.

PAUL SIMON, "MOTHER AND CHILD REUNION" (Charing Cross, BMI). Simon sans Garfunkel is quintessential Simon lyrically, but his sound is decidedly more "teenage." Will set the charts afire and whet appetites for solo album to follow. Nifty! Columbia 45547.

PAUL WILLIAMS, "WAKING UP ALONE" (Almo, ASCAP). Paul, who writes hits for such as the Carpenters and Three Dog Night, is about to prove that nice guys do, after all, finish first. Touching tune, beautifully sung. A star is born. A&M 1325.

JERRY GARCIA, "GARCIA." In his first solo album, the leader of the Grateful Dead will benefit greatly with huge sales. Fans will love it, and converts will follow suit. Certainly, the weirdest cover of the week. Truck on. Warner Bros. BS 2582.

TOMMY JAMES, "TELL 'EM WILLIE BOY'S A'COMIN'" (Mandan, BMI). From Tommy's Nashville sessions and with a somewhat more country feel as a result, this story-song still has the Tommy James sound that top 40s delight in. Will do well, no doubt. Roulette 7119.

CISSY HOUSTON, "I LOVE YOU" (Shelby Singleton, BMI). Ed Townsend-penned side is Cissy's strongest single entry since she joined the label. Enables her to demonstrate the full force and power of her vocal energies. Performance plus. Janus 177.

MANFRED MANN, "MANFRED MANN'S EARTH BAND." His distinctive style of bluesy rock and roll is quite apparent, as he belts out terrific sounds with this band. Contains the Dylan classic, "Please Mrs. Henry," and Randy Newman's "Living Without You." Polydor PD 5015.

BOBBY SHERMAN, "TOGETHER AGAIN" (Famous, ASCAP). There's no question that the melody here bears a striking resemblance to Bobby's big "Easy Come, Easy Go" hit. There's also no question that the fans will love it as a result of the similarity. Metromedia 240.

MOUTH & MACNEAL, "HOW DO YOU DO?" (WB, ASCAP). A smash on the continent, breaking in Great Britain, and soon to do the same this side of the Atlantic, this pop ditty is simply packed with top 40 appeal. Charming lyric. Philips 40715 (Mercury).

VARIOUS ARTISTS, "JAMMING WITH EDWARD." What an array! Hopkins, Cooder, Jagger, Wyman and Watts, but the accolades belong to keyboard player Nicky Hopkins. Long jams and studio patter are the thing. Big airplay and sales. Rolling Stones COC 39100 (Atlantic).

Capitol Replies to Klein Charges Re "Bangla Desh" Concert Album

■ NEW YORK, January 20 — Responding to charges made by ABKCO Industries President Allen B. Klein at a New York press conference last week and subsequently in a letter to Capitol Records President Bhaskar Menon, the following letter from Capitol Vice President Brown Meggs was delivered last week to Klein in New York:

Mr. Allen B. Klein
Apple Records, Inc.
1700 Broadway
New York, New York 10020
Dear Allen:

Although, as you know, Bhaskar Menon is currently on business in India, his office received your letter to him dated January 12, 1972, concerning "The Concert for Bangla Desh." Also, last Friday (January 14), a member of the press was kind enough to read to us a copy of the letter, which you apparently saw fit to release publicly in advance of our own receipt of that document.

We have discussed your letter with Bhaskar by telephone, and he has asked me to reply for him. Taking the principal points raised in your letter:

(1) Prior to our release of the "Bangla Desh" album on Each diskery under the MCA banner (Kapp, Decca, Uni) had an evening in which to introduce new talent and present awards to established artists.

Kapp Night (12) featured Sonny and Cher, Roger Williams, El Chicano, Tom Ghent, and Uncle Jim; Decca Night included Loretta Lynn, Conway Twitty, Rick Nelson, Jerry Clower, Ratchell, Lindy Stevens, and Parrish and Gurvitz; and Uni Night featured Neil Diamond, Bill Cosby, Mike Settle, Rockin' Foo, and Thomas and Richard Frost.

Healthy Exchange At MIDEM

■ CANNES, FRANCE — A healthy exchange of product was the general consensus of those publishers and record companies in attendance at MIDEM.

The turnout of close to 5,000 broke all records of previous years.

Attorneys representing respective firms were in abundance, some beginning negotiations, and others consummating deals for their home countries.

Talent at the galas on Monday (17) and Wednesday (19) seemed spotty, but, by far, the best performances were turned in by U.S. artists. Curtis Mayfield (Curton), Shawn Phillips (A&M), Helen Reddy (Capitol), Al Green (Hi) and Buffy Sainte-Marie (Vanguard) all scored heavily.

Cocktail receptions were held including A&M's honoring Billy Preston and Shawn Phillips, and Pickwick International's gold record awards.

All photographs and a report of Friday's show will appear in next week's edition of Record World.

Excursions to Disneyland, Universal Studios and Santa Anita were among the Festival's daytime activities. Guests were quartered at the Sheraton-Universal Hotel.

Stanley Exits Chappell Post, 32-Year Stay

■ NEW YORK — Stan Stanley announcer last week that he will be leaving Chappell & Co. Feb. 1 after 32 years with the firm.

Stylistics Everything at Avco; Hugo, Luigi, Katznel Tell Why

By MIKE SIGMAN

NEW YORK—The Stylistics are not a new group, nor is Avco Records a new label. But this week has seen the fruits of long efforts by both group and label, as the Stylistics' single "You Are Everything," already certified as a million seller several weeks ago, becomes their first top 10 record. At the same time, the "Stylistics" album moves into the number 30 spot with a bullet, thus confirming that this affair with success is not about to stop.

To get the story behind the breaking of the Stylistics in the pop market, Record World spoke to Avco's Hugo Peretti and Luigi Creatore (better known as Hugo and Luigi), Vice Presidents and Chief Operating Officers of the label, and Bud Katznel, Avco's General Manager. According to Luigi, who sits across a large desk from partner Hugo as he has for many years, "about six months ago we decided we were going strongly into the r&b market to find pop-oriented records. 'You Are Everything' is really the culmination of those efforts."

Katznel explained the key factor in the huge pop success of the record: "The pop orientation of this record is not accidental. Last year we picked up a master by the Stylistics in Philadelphia. It was called 'You're a Big Girl Now,' and we thought this group should be moved into the pop field. Hugo and Luigi then decided that the change that was needed was to get Thom Bell as their producer. With national distribution, the record was an r&b hit."

Hugo continued, "Their next record, 'Stop, Look and Listen,' was even bigger, and rose high on the pop charts. On the third single, 'You Are Everything,' Avco had everything working. Red Schwartz, a veteran promotion man in both the r&b and pop fields, joined the label and helped give the record maximum exposure."

The three execs also stressed that the game plan that has proven so successful with the Stylistics will be used for other label artists as well. In Luigi's words, "We now have a concept for our label and a definite direction. Our focus is on black pop." Toward this end, Avco has picked up red hot Donny

Playboy Meets To Intro Discs

Playboy Records' Vice-President, Bob Cullen, hosted four regional independent record distributor meetings in Miami, New Jersey, Chicago and Los Angeles Jan. 17, 18, 19 and 20, respectively.

Playboy Records has set up a network of 25 independent distributors to handle its product nationally. To introduce the new company to its distributors, Bob Cullen plus Ron Goldstein, National Sales Manager, Michael J. Papale, National Promotion Director and Stuart Rowlands, Director of Public Relations traveled to Miami (Miami Plaza Hotel), New Jersey (Great Gorge Hotel), Chicago (Lake Geneva Hotel) and returned to their headquarters in Los Angeles to conclude the meetings.

Cullen will introduce the distributors to the first two albums for release on January 23rd. One by Hudson, three multi-talented brothers from Oregon and the other by Jim Sullivan, a singer/song writer who plays incredible 12 string guitar. Future product for the company will be discussed including the Tim Rose album currently being produced by Gary Wright in England and scheduled for release in February.

Elbert, and his "I Can't Help Myself" is already following in the Stylistics' footsteps as an r&b record with wide pop appeal.

Of course, plans call for another Stylistics single soon, and it will be given the same treatment. At a time when the pop singles charts are chock full of r&b records, and when even the album charts show signs of giving r&b its due, the outlook for Avco Records and the Stylistics seems very bright.

Thom Bell, Hugo Peretti, Luigi Creatore.

Col Appoints Three In Market Dept. Change

NEW YORK—In a move designed to deal more effectively with product output and to provide more intensive and coordinated product support, Bruce Lundvall, Columbia Records Vice President, Marketing, has announced three promotions that reorganize marketing responsibilities in the areas of Press and Information Services, Merchandising and Artist Relations.

Robert Altshuler has been named to the newly expanded position of Director, Press and Information Services and will be responsible for the planning and development of all press and field communications for Columbia, Epic and the Columbia Custom Labels. These responsibilities will include the Literary Service Department, which is in charge of liner notes, the Field Communications Department and the continued direction of the Press and Public Information Department.

Altshuler joined Columbia in 1965 from Atlantic Records where he was Director, Publicity and Advertising and wrote many of their liner notes. He most recently served as Director, Press and Public Information.

Al Teller has been appointed to the newly created position of Director, Merchandising. In his new role, he will be responsible for the planning and placement of all national print and radio advertising, directed retail advertising and point-of-sale merchandising materials. He will also serve as project coordinator for all new artist exploitation planning and will continue to supervise the College Rep Program.

David Wynshaw is appointed to the expanded role of Director, Artist Relations and Special Events and in that position will be responsible for the direction of artist relations, concert and TV booking coordination, artist tour activities and the planning of company functions and company-stage shows and concerts, such as the recent Madison Square Garden MOR Show.

Wynshaw joined Columbia in 1960 and was formerly Director, Artist Relations. Messrs. Altshuler, Wynshaw and Teller will all report directly to Bruce Lundvall.

GNP Sign

NEW YORK — Metromedia Records has signed a new group, GNP (Gross National Productions).

GNP will be ready for release the middle of January.

A&M Records warmly and proudly welcomes Joan Baez.

YES—Atlantic 2854

ROUNDAABOUT (Cotillion, BMI)

If, as it seems, the time has come to say yes to Yes, then this drastically-chopped cut pulled from the new "Fragile" album will succeed mightily. Nice harmonies.

JOAN BAEZ—Vanguard 35148

WILL THE CIRCLE BE UNBROKEN (Public Domain)

Country artists from the Carter Family through Johnny Cash have recorded this traditional favorite. Now Joan's going to take it top 40.

KOOL AND THE GANG—De-Lite 546

LOVE THE LIFE YOU LIVE PART 1

(Stephanye/Delightful, BMI)

Will Kool ever quit cooking? On the evidence provided here, it appears unlikely. Dynamic instrumental with together vocal. Great brass.

ESTHER PHILLIPS—Kudu 904 (CTI)

HOME IS WHERE THE HATRED IS (Bob Thiele, ASCAP)

No longer little, Esther remains a big talent and it's amply demonstrated in her first release for the label, which was written by poet Gil Scott-Heron. Important topical message.

MARDI GRAS—Bell 177

TOO BUSY THINKING ABOUT MY BABY (Jobete, BMI)

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION (Loupop, BMI)

Seems like everybody's disc-covering the gold in those Jobete hills. Latest is this long-time top 40 attuned group. Spirited pop.

MICHAEL NESMITH & THE SECOND NATIONAL BAND—RCA 0629

MAMA ROCKER (Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI)

LAZY LADY (Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI)

Mike's now on his second National Band but he continues to turn our great sounds in a variety of styles. His latest—a variation of Chuck Berry's "Nadine."

BACKYARD HEAVIES—Scepter 12343

CHITLIN' STRUT

(Rhineland/People Pleases/Metrolina, BMI)

One of those irresistible r&b instrumental workouts. Features groovin' organ work and dynamic rhythm section. Let's dance!

BOZ SCAGGS—Columbia 45540

RUNNIN' BLUE (Blue Street, ASCAP)

Boz is at his best when he's singing the blues in the city style. He's at his best here and he wrote it besides. Try some.

KEITH GRAVENHORST—Royal American 54

DO WHAT YOU WANTA DO (Clairidge, ASCAP)

HEAVY ON MY MIND (Clairidge & Gravenhorst, ASCAP)

Artist's name might be a bit hard to remember at first, but a listen or two to his work will make his sound unforgettable. Distinctive pop-rocker.

LOUIE AND THE LOVERS—Epic 5-10825

LITTLE GEORGIE BAKER (April, ASCAP)

Youthful Chicano rock group has a fresh, vital sound that promises even better work from them in the future. Simple, straightforward sounds.

THE MARVELETTES—Tamla 54213

A BREATH-TAKING GUY (Jobete, BMI)

Classic Motown group returns after much too long an absence and sounds as sweet and fine as ever. Smokey wrote and produced, of course.

RITA COOLIDGE—A&M 1324

NICE FEELIN' (Kind Favor/Element, ASCAP)

Marc Benno-penned title cut of her current album has been pared down to single length and what a nice feeling it would be to hear lovely Rita's luscious voice on the air.

JAMES GADSON—Cream 1014

LET THE FEELING BELONG (Butter/Pip, BMI)

Artist, who wrote and sang lead on the Watts Band's "Loveland," has written and produced a contemporary r&b message number for himself here. Sure thing.

BROTHERLY LOVE—

Music Merchant 1004 (Buddah)

MAMA'S LITTLE BABY (LOVES LOVIN')

(Gold Forever, BMI)

New H-D-H label bows with a group effort that borrows from the Jackson 5 stylistically. Disc overflows with joyous sound and contagious effervescence. Hit!

POTLIQUOR—Janus 179

CHEER (Flypaper, BMI)

GHATANOOGA (Flypaper, BMI)

Louisiana-based group should make its chart breakthrough with this power-packed cut pulled from the new "Levee Blues" album. Top 40 perfect.

THE COWSILL—London 170

COVERED WAGON (Cotillion/Burdette, BMI)

RIFFLE ROAD (Cowsill, BMI)

This bunch was really the first of the current spate of family groups. They've grown up and so has their sound. Terrific Danny O'Keefe-composed rocker.

BILL BRANDON—Moonsong 9001 (Mercury)

STOP THIS MERRY-GO-ROUND (Moonsong, BMI)

I'M A BELIEVER NOW (Moonsong, BMI)

Label's first release is as solid a soul side as there's been of late. Singer has an exciting approach that will serve him in good stead in the years to come. Dynamic!

LEE MARTRELL—Renegade 5602 (London)

A GOOD WOMAN (Adventure, ASCAP)

One of those mellow soul sides where all the pieces fit. Singing suits the material perfectly and vice versa. Production brings it home. Check it out.

GROOTNA—Columbia 45538

WAITIN' FOR MY SHIP (Seven Barks, BMI)

A few great girl singers have come out of San Francisco over the years. This group's lead is the latest. From their debut album, produced Marty Balin.

MEL TORME—London 171

WHOSE GARDEN WAS THIS (United Artists, ASCAP)

MORNING STAR (Flamingo, ASCAP)

The singer's singer returns to wax with a typically professional rendering of the Tom Paxton ecological lament. Important message should be heard repeatedly.

JEAN KNIGHT—Stax 0116

CARRY ON (Malaco/Alotta, BMI)

Her "Mr. Big Stuff" was one of the monsters of the year past. This rhythm ditty is a good candidate for honors in 1972. A very good one, is this.

LOU RAWLS—MGM 14349

HIS SONG SHALL BE SUNG (Beresofsky-Hebb, BMI)

After his chart re-breakthrough with "Natural Man" lately, Lou's liable to take this lively, likable uptempo workout all the way.

COMMANDER CODY AND HIS LOST PLANET

AIRMEN—Paramount 0146

HOT ROD LINCOLN (4-Star, BMI)

MY HOME IN MY HAND (Earl Barton, BMI)

The Commander and his boys should give Dave Dudley a real run for the money in truck-stop juke boxes with their latest, a tale of the American road. Good clean fun!

POINTER SISTERS—Atlantic 2845

DON'T TRY TO TAKE THE FIFTH (Alotta, BMI)

That this one sounds like "Want Ads" is uncontested. That that's a good way to sound these days goes without saying. Potential smash!

THE FOUNDATIONS—Uni 55315 (MCA)

STONEY GROUND (Southern, ASCAP)

I'LL GIVE YOU LOVE (Leeds, ASCAP)

The "Build Me Up Buttercup" bunch is back with more of the pop-rock sounds that originally took them to the top of the top 40 heap.

THE RANDALLS—Avalanche 36007 (UA)

SLUMS OF THE CITY (Unart/Emandolynn, BMI)

RIDIN' HIGH (Unart/Emandolynn, BMI)

Label's best release to date is truly evocative of the slums of the city in both sound and fury. Tremendous rhythmic effects too.

CUFFLINKS—Atco 6867

SANOI (Vanlee-Emily, ASCAP)

Vance-Pockriss produced pop-rockers have joined a label largely deficient in the soft sound. It should be clear sailing up the charts with their first for the diskery.

TOM BRESH—Kapp 2160 (MCA)

D. B. COOPER, WHERE ARE YOU? (Freemont West, BMI)

APPLE PIE (Freemont West, BMI)

Already a legend in the Pacific Northwest, the hope here is that his fame will spread through the release of this contemporary folk ballad.

MICHAEL HENRY MARTIN—SSS 852

SOUL-BILLY (HILL BROTHER) (Dunbar, BMI)

It's the lyrics that count here. Perceptive analysis of population shifts and the resultant effect on popular music styles.

PATRICE HOLLOWAY—Capitol 3265

BLACK MOTHER GOOSE (Think-Stallman, BMI)

Soulstress has paid some dues singing back-up, writing hits for others, and as one of the Pussycats. Now she shines on her own. Good idea here.

BEANS

Avalanche—AVR 9200 (UA)
New group really gets it on with a barrage of acoustical instruments that include mandolin, 12 string, victrola, melodica and assorted blocks. The soft, clear folk tempos should lead to strong public acceptance. Some outstanding cuts include, "Eyes," and "Honky Tonk Refrigerator."

LIQUID ACROBAT AS REGARDS THE AIR
THE INCREDIBLE STRING BAND—
Elektra EKS-74112

Surrealistic as ever, the band takes us on our wistful ride for the week. Heron, Robin, Likky and Malcolm, in this effort, are sure to please their many fans. A few traditional jigs make the package complete. Co-produced with Stan Schnier for tasteful and worthy results.

JACKSON BROWNE

JACKSON BROWN—
Asylum SD-5051 (Atlantic)
Here's a singer-songwriter that should click first time out. Picking the best cuts would be foolish, since they're all quite good. Intelligent lyrics and haunting melodies are far too rare, but this effort has it all. Should be listened to without distractions. Get into it.

ONE YEAR

COLIN BLUNSTONE—Epic E 30974
Former singer with the Zombies comes back after an absence that's lasted too long. Rod Argent adds great support to Colin's first solo effort. The package is a story of one year out of the singer's life. Very personal and poignant. Will receive numerous accolades. A score.

MALO

MALO—Warner Bros.-BS 2584
If you love Santana, you'll surely dig Malo. Carlos' younger brother tries his hand at the same kind of music and the result is a Latin feeling with a great deal of clarity. As a guest musician, Coke Escovedo shows why he's probably the finest timbales player anywhere.

WILDERNESS ROAD

Columbia C 31118
In addition to the name of the group, eye-catching names on the jacket include Jack Richardson, Alan Rinde, Ron Oberman and Edward Hopper, whose oeuvre evidently influenced the cover (in what way is difficult to divine). Wilderness Road are reminiscent of the Band, and yet are quite distinctive.

RACK JOBBERS RULE

THE HOODOO RHYTHM DEVILS—
Capitol ST-842
It's 50's time again, with the best album title of the week. Another fine example of how older rhythms should be updated. Great rock and roll. The sleeve notes a special thanks to Jerry Garcia. Why? Probably because everybody in San Francisco thanks Jerry Garcia.

JESUS CHRIST GREATEST HITS
THE GOD SQUAD FEATURING
LEONARD CASTON—
Rare Earth R 531L

The brain is teased into wondering whether the title of this album is making fun of the commercialization of the Christian deity or participating in it. The music is refined funk with Leonard Caston doing a ripping good job at the keyboard. The songs are all recent god-rock hits. Watch.

KONGOS

JOHN KONGOS—Elektra EKS-75019
This long awaited album will win John Kongos' many friends as he combines clever lyrics with excellent rhythms. Contains "Tokoloshe Man," and the well received single, "He's Gonna Step On You Again," Another in the long line of accomplishments for producer Gus Dudgeon.

BOBBY GOSH

BOBBY GOSH—Polydor PD 5016
The gruff sounding Mr. Gosh has been knocking at those elusive doors of success for a long time now, and this could be the vehicle that does it. Rock and roll with a country flavor being in vogue, Singer has everything in his favor. All songs written by Gosh and Jodi Wexler.

FACE TO FACE WITH THE TRUTH

THE UNDISPUTED TRUTH—
Gordy G959L (Motown)
Package contains recent Marvin Gaye smash, "What's Going On," plus hits of the Temptations and Gladys Knight. Has all the ingredients of an R & B smash. A full compliment of musicians is used. Dennis Coffey on lead guitar. Wonderful production by Norman Whitfield.

SINGS THE GREAT HITS OF NAT KING COLE

JERRY VALE—Columbia C 31147
Jerry adds his special touch to some of the immortal Mr. Cole's greatest successes. Included are "Too Young," "Nature Boy," "Unforgettable," "Mona Lisa," and "Ramblin Rose." They're all there to be enjoyed. We needn't say any more.

TIGHTLY KNIT

CLIMAX BLUES BAND—Sire SI 5903
Climax is a band that is long overdue. This is the one that might make it happen. A lot of boogie and much rock and roll. Nice harmonies and tight instrumentation should propel the group to devastating heights. Listen hard, and if you can find the time, dance to it.

PURE DEVOTION

LINDY STEVENS—Decca DL 7-5324
More than likely, there are not more talented girl singers-writers around these days; it's just that more of them are getting a chance to show what they've got. So now the competition is thick in another way—getting heard above the crowd. Lindy Stevens has the wherewithal to go. (Continued on page 16)

Introducing Shawn Phillips and his first three new albums.

It's rare when a relatively new talent receives a response like the one that follows. It's also rare when that same talent has three virtually unknown albums to verify every word.

"The real fascination, and the real surprise, was a guitarist-singer-songwriter named Shawn Phillips. It's difficult to understand how such an obviously brilliant performer could languish for very long in relative anonymity.

"Phillips does everything superbly—sometimes with genuine brilliance... a blend of musical excellence and emotional electricity.

"High praise. But Phillips deserves every bit of it."

That's how Don Heckman of the New York Times reacted to a recent appearance of Shawn Phillips. And after that introduction it's easy to see that there's more to hear than just 32 songs.

Artie Ripp: Evolution of a Rock Mogul

By TONY LAWRENCE

Artie Ripp

■ (Editor's note: The following concludes an exclusive two-part interview held recently with Artie Ripp, young veteran of the music industry now President of Family Records.)

Record World: What was the main thrust of Buddah's early success as a label?

Ripp: Buddah was incredibly successful with singles but not with having stars. The 1910 Fruitgum Company and the Ohio Express were record stars but not "in-person stars." They weren't people you wanted to read about. Then we signed Melanie and she cut an album I co-produced with Peter

Schekeryk. Basically, we thought it was going to take a long time to break her so I took her to Europe and in eight months she was the hottest female singer in Holland and France. In the United Kingdom she was nothing. (Ironically, she sold out Albert Hall there some months ago.)

Breaking Artists in Europe

Record World: What is the significance of breaking a new artist in Europe?

Ripp: In some cases it's easier to break an act there. You have approximately 3000 pop stations in the U.S. and in England you have BBC I, BBC II and Radio Luxembourg. At least if you're shot down, you know you have nowhere to go. So now you have to work the act and get people to go into the record stores without getting the record played. The other advantage is that if you do get on a station, you're really on that station. England, Holland, Germany, France, Scandinavia and Japan are very hip musically. Having the right relationship with a licensing company is important, too, but they really should appreciate sending a new artist over to try and break him. There are also a lot of clubs over there—here they seem to be diminishing. You can't make the money there that you can make here. It took Melanie two and a half years to make it here.

Record World: How have you watched Melanie change creatively?

Ripp: She's grown a great deal and still has a great deal of growth left. Melanie is a woman-child and "Brand New Key" is the child side of her. Maybe "A Little Bit of Me" out of the new album is more the woman side of her.

Record World: What about the changes that John Sebastian has gone through?

Ripp: I was spoiled by seeing John in a group context but he, too, has grown. Part of the "Spoonful" magic was John and his songs but Zal Yanovsky, Joe Butler and Steve Boone were sure important elements. I'd like to see John fulfill his own satisfaction of getting out there and being John Sebastian and have a group that he can lay down some more good tunes with. It's generally difficult to get people tapping and trucking with only one voice and an acoustical guitar.

Record World: What was your original intent with Sha Na Na and how do you look at them now?

Grooviest Part of Experience

Ripp: The grooviest part of that experience was getting permission to use a piece of tape that I'd found with Alan Freed saying: "This is Alan Freed, the King of Rock and Roll, saying God bless you and good night." Being able to put that in front of the Flamingos' "Lovers Never Say Goodbye" was sufficiently thrilling. I was trying to get an incredible musical album from Sha Na Na and the end result was that I couldn't get into playing the album when I finished it. It wasn't their fault or my fault. They were put together as a theatrical group of people and not musicians who got together to be the greatest band in the world.

Record World: What is your present involvement with Buddah/Kama Sutra?

Ripp: I still own my same interest in both companies for another two years. When we sold the company to Viewlex it was on a five-year buy-out. I only exited the company from a management point of view.

Record World: How do you find yourself applying your past knowledge and success to Family Records? How does this apply to a new act that you're breaking such as Burton and Cunico?

Ripp: Burton and Cunico came from Australia as part of a group called the Executives. I changed their name to Inner Sense. The group then broke up and [Ray] Burton and [Gino] Cunico and the drummer Rhys Clark remained. What I heard in them was a sort of contemporary Everly Brothers. They have a pleasant warm sound without being bland or placid. The artist today says to the record company, "What are you doing for me," and I say to them, "What are you doing for yourself?" I gave Burton and Cunico a camper, a map and some expense money and they went to radio stations and said hello to everybody in the Northwest area of the country (Arizona, Wyoming, Seattle, San Francisco, Washington and Oregon, among others).

Record World: What was the result of that?

Ripp: Better than 50% of the stations they visited have come through and are playing both the album ("Strive, Seek and Find") and the single ("Grandfathers" b/w "Run For Your Life"). I sent Kvie out on the road with his single and now we're getting ready to go back in and cut his second album. In the case of Mama Lion we did a great deal of pre-promotion so that people would know her name and when her record does arrive (this week and next) they are able to pick it out and then decide if they want to play it and/or write about it. If they don't like it, at least I'll know that and try to come up with something they do like.

Record World: Do you perceive of an album cycle in breaking an artist?

Ripp: Some artists don't break for five years. Glen Campbell re-signed a five year contract before "Gentle on My Mind." He had already had five years with no hits and in his sixth year of recording he made it. The Beatles were into their second year of recording before making it.

Record World: What are the operational aims of Family?

Ripp: Family is looking to be a full service organization to the artist from the standpoint of promotion, marketing, coordination and effort in terms of the record product. Frank Day and August Dellapietra are working closely on that. August is on the road working with the promotion men and making sure that the records are in the store when we get on a station. Al Kasha and Richard Kaye are working full time in the publishing area to get other recordings of our artists' material and that can be most helpful in breaking a new artist. REDBONE · MESSAGE FROM A DRUM

She used to live in England (where she became Number One).
Now, as she climbs the charts over here (No.19), she lives in Redbone's new album, "Message From a Drum."

Redbone, to refresh your memory, is the group of American Indians who play an infectious brand of music all their own: part New Orleans
Cajun, part American Indian, and a whole lot of hard rock.

It all goes together and creates a sound like nobody else's.

Which, after all is said and done, is what hit groups are made of.

Stereo Dimension College Program

By GARY K. COHEN

■ Stereo Dimension Records President Loren Becker, in an exclusive Record World interview this week said that a major promotion campaign for Lighthouse will begin on Jan. 21, with the major thrust of the campaign aimed at the college campus, including college radio stations. The purpose of the promotion campaign, according to Becker, is to make Lighthouse "one of the top 10 acts of 1972."

Stereo Dimension Records, a small independent company, is one that believes in concentration on the product they release, since they cannot do what a major label does in terms of promotion and marketing with field promotion people around the country. But, he stressed, they can give a concentrated effort to what they do promote . . . and Lighthouse is that group.

Their success in 1971 included sales of over 250,000 LPs and over 700,000 singles from the album "One Fine Morning" and the single of the same title. And to support their new album, "Thoughts Of Moving On," they will begin a tour on Jan. 21, including many college dates. Among the campus appearances are: U. of North Carolina at Wilmington, Virginia Polytech, Appalachian State University, Georgia Southern, Citadel, Grove City College in Pennsylvania, Purdue, among others. There are still 3 or 4 open dates yet to be filled. A proposed three-part tour beginning in March would cover the country from West Coast to East Coast . . . the details still being worked out. From an engagement standpoint, the company believes that college appearances reach the album-buying public and are important for artists who want to increase their audience.

Time Buys

Becker also announced that Stereo Dimension will be buying time on 28 colleges around the country to back up and promote Lighthouse's appearances. They have bought packages of 75 spots per station through Campus Media, account rep for the 28 stations involved. The total amount of their time buys is over $15,000, which is one of the largest amounts ever spent by a record company on college radio advertising. Included in the spot package will be a tape of one of their concerts, which will be broadcast over the stations involved. Becker indicated Stereo Dimension will be taping the Carnegie Hall concerts and hope to use their headlining appearance as the taped show the stations will air.

Included among the stations running the ads and tape are: Stanford, UCLA, Univ. of Colorado at Boulder, Univ. of Conn. at Storrs, Univ. of Delaware, American Univ., Indiana, Purdue, Maryland, Boston Univ., Central Michigan, Eastern Michigan, Univ. of Michigan at Ann Arbor, Rutgers, Cornell, Kent State, Penn State, Dayton, Southern Methodist Univ., Univ. of Wisconsin at Madison and Virginia Tech.

Completing Specials

According to Becker, one of the chief problems with companies running some sort of special college promotion, is that they never complete the program or follow through. "Most companies have talked about the value of college radio but have never done a comprehensive program. We intend to make sure that adequate back-up material is available on and around campus. We will make sure there are albums available to the student buyers. Where the breakdown usually is," he continued, "is that companies do a campaign with little or no product. The product is either not available or there are so few copies of the album available that they are bought up in a couple of hours. The stores themselves may be racked or there may be no records purchased for display in the store. The job will be done. There will be ample solid stock backing up the promotion campaign." Becker concluded by saying, "we are planning the first comprehensive college campaign of its kind, rather than the sporadic mailings, sporadic phone calls and sporadic spot buying." What they have come up with is a four-part program—the group's tour, radio spots, broadcast of the live concert, and the merchan-

Airplay smash of the week:

B. J. Thomas KHJ, WFIC, KQV, KILT, WPGC, WBBQ, WCAO, WRKO, Etc.

Sure shot for number 1 - Neil Young. The release of the album is being held up until February 15 when the new Federal bootlegging law takes effect.

Sure shot for the top - Yes. This will be the super group of 1972.

Sleeper of the week: "Iron Man," Black Sabbath.

It exploded 38-19 at KJR and is getting strong requests. It debuted on the chart at KOL where it is #3 in requests. The nitty gritty of this act is Sex & Violence. They are packing every arena in which they perform.

Beverly Bremers Well, this record came through. It has just gotten its seventh bullet in a row in the trade charts.

Michel LeGrand This is shaping up as a solid breakout. It is #10 at WTIX and exploded 15-9 at KLIF. It is already in the top 20 sales at Boston one stops, and is confirmed at WIFE 30-24 with big phone requests. It is also on the chart at KTSA San Antonio.

Nilsson This record is on a collision course with the #1 spot on the charts.

Instrumental smash from Detroit. Lunar Funk - it exploded 26-17 CKLW and is confirmed as a huge hit at WKNR. The rst new believer is KTSA San Antonio.

CKLW front-page tip of the last few weeks fully confirmed: Frank Mills 15-12 CKLW, 9 WKNR. Confirmed 40-18 WIXY. Chart debut: WIFE, WRIT, WMAK. WIFE says "it looks like a #1 record". New believers: KQV and KHJ.

Super sleeper: Quinames on Elektra, "Don't Knock". Dave Sholin, KLIV San Jose, who broke Beverly Bremers is now starting another one. The little stock that was in town is already sold out and the dealers are crying for more. One store reported that a customer heard it on their turntable for the first time and bought it right then and there.

R&B to pop sure shot of the week: "I Gotcha", Joe Tex. 11-3 CKLW, 7 WKNR. Chart debut: KLIF where Jim Taber says "this will go #1". WKLO Louisville already reports "good solid requests". New Believer: WQXI. Quarterback tried and tested daytime programming

WILL ROGERS' U.S.A.

JAMES WHITMORE AND ORIGINAL CAST
—Columbia SG30546

From the upcoming television special that was adapted and directed by Paul Shyre. Whitmore does an excellent job portraying the late genius of the spoken quip. All of Rogers' most remembered material is included in the package. Listen and reflect. A double LP.

MIKE SETTLE

MIKE SETTLE—Uni 73128 (MCA)

The one time member of the First Edition gives us pretty ballads with a gospel influence in this solo effort. One track was written by Tom Ghant, but all others come from the pen of Settle. The album will please those who remember him from the group. Nice.

MIKE HARRISON

MIKE HARRISON—
Island SMAS9313 (Capitol)

The former member of Spooky Tooth, in his first solo effort, gives us an introspective look at himself. Included is Cat Stevens' "Hard Headed Woman," with tenor sax by Arthur Belcher. The cut is a standout on an album that has many. Check it out.

WHITE DUCK

WHITE DUCK—Uni 73122 (MCA)

Simply outrageous. With many borrowed licks from the Beatles this group deserves more than just an occasional listen. Blues, rock and roll, and boogie make up the interesting package. Listen for the great screaming by vocalist Don Kloetzke. They are a group with potential.

LOVE, LUCK N' LOLLIPOPS

THE BELLS—Polydor PD 5503

These lovable Canadians should score easily with material drawn from the likes of Kristofferson, Paul Simon, John Sebastian and Phil Spector. Their relaxing sounds and the combination of Cliff Edwards' production greatly aid the chances for a long overdue hit album. "A" for effort.

KEEP THE FAITH

BLACK OAK ARKANSAS—Atco SD 33-381

In a package reminiscent of the Holy Scriptures, Black Oak Arkansas puts a message in their down home rock and roll. "The Big One's Still Coming," is the most exciting cut on an album of many. Their fans should all rejoice on this one. The patter on side two is solid funk.

GODOFALLOFUS

NEW HOPE—Light LS 5590

"The material on this album," the liner notes state, "is of a religious nature. However, we are not necessarily religious people." What this means is anybody's guess. The music, however, is much clearer in intent. It is a polished gospel with lots of burnished brass.

Black and magnificent.

Osibisa
Woyaya

Their name is Osibisa, which is an African word for rhythm.

They come from Ghana, Nigeria, Antigua, Trinidad, and Grenada, via London, where they became one of the most sought after bands in Europe—entirely from word-of-mouth, before they recorded their first album.

Their music is as spectacular as the flying elephant which is their symbol, an extraordinary fusion of Western and African forms.

"This is what makes Osibisa happen," says the group's leader, Teddy Osai. "When listening to our music, people — particularly black people — can remind themselves of the music they missed, and also of the music they should be looking into."

On their first American tour last fall, Osibisa made instant fans out of critics: "They make music a pleasure — not a struggle. Osibisa breathes, smiles, chants, enchants, manipulates, overpowers. The musicians were spectacular, a combination of intuitive genius, hard work and intertwining roots." — Michael Ross, Los Angeles Times.

"Osibisa . . . for temporary relief from the rock blahs." — Thomas Popson, Chicago Tribune.

Now Osibisa has completed its second album. Its title, "Woyaya," is African for "We are going." In the words of the liner notes, "... if you liked their first, then this one will flatten you ..."

There's little left for us to say. Except that we genuinely can't think of any other new album that can bring you the joy, happiness, and pleasure this one does.

Because that is the gift of Osibisa.

Osibisa: "Woyaya"

Siegelson To Scepter Pubs

■ NEW YORK—Stan Greenberg, V. P. Scepter Records has announced the appointment of Bert Siegelson to General Publishing Mgr. of Our Children's Music / Goff-Green Publishing Co., Scepter's music publishing companies.

Siegelson came to Our Chil-

Silver, Stevens To Lion Label

■ HOLLYWOOD—Mike Curb, President of MGM Records, has signed Arnie Silver and Mark Stevens to a recording pact. An album will be issued in February on the Lion label, distributed by MGM Records, on which Silver and Stevens are writers and producers as well as artists on the package.

The duo will be publicized and promoted through the college and university market and will include an intensive campus radio and newspaper campaign, campus personal appearances and special displays in campus record shops.

Ray Renner will manage Silver and Stevens and will head up Silver/Stevens Productions, a newly formed company which will include S/S Music and S/S Management.

Mike Curb, Arnie Silvers, Mark Stevens.

Gibson and her brother-in-law Kip Gibson. They're concentrating quite a bit on Family Scandals, our company newsletter.

Record World: The Scandals have been the source of some extremely interesting and positive comment for a label newsletter. What is the current circulation of the Scandals?

Ripp: This month 15,000 will go out and by March we should increase that to a 50,000 run.

Record World: Who else is on your staff?

Looking for Full-Time Promo Man

Ripp: Right now I'm trying to find the right national promotion man who will work solely for Family on a full-time basis. Since all of our artists are unknown, it is a further responsibility to get that artist in to the market place to be seen and heard by the radio people so that is an additional task.

Record World: How long will you continue with an artist if the positive results don't occur?

Ripp: There is no artist that the company has signed that we will stop working on. We don't have a time limit of nine months. We have commitments with these people and we'll keep working until we succeed. We may be wrong about a record but we, eventually, won't be wrong about an artist.

dren after a 3-year stint as Director of Professional Activities for Burlington Music, where he developed and activated the company to a prominent position with hits by Tom Jones, Peggy Lee, The Flirtations and other artists.

In his dual role as Director of Sales for Declon British Decca's master leasing affiliate, Siegelson was responsible for major transactions with Pickwick, Vox, Everest and Scepter. One of his most significant master deals was "Joseph And His Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat," an important chart LP for Scepter.

Previously Siegelson was Professional Mgr. of Frank Music Corp. At that time, he was involved with the promotion of many hit Broadway musical scores including, "Music Man," "How To Succeed In Business," "The Most Happy Fella" and "The Unsinkable Molly Brown."

dising of the group's albums and product in the stores. "After all, even when you have sales of two or three million albums, which makes it a very big album, you have still only scratched the surface of the potential."

The program, indeed comprehensive and one that touches all the bases in promoting an act via college appearances and college radio exposure and time buys, should certainly make Lighthouse a Top 10 group in 1972.

The Campus Report will report back in April on the results of the tour and campaign.

J. C. Penny Shoplift Move

■ NEW YORK—Shoplifting is being counteracted in an unusual way by the J. C. Penny Department stores Joe Laughtner of J. C. Penny has produced a five minute audio "show" designed to be played in the J. C. Penny stores and decrease shoplifting.

Produced in Dick Lavsky's Music House Studios, the unorthodox approach to the expensive problem of petty theft utilized four singers and three actors to make the point that stealing is a "no no."

The problem facing the program director is to decide whether to appeal to an MOR. audience (remember that the MOR. stations have all the ratings in the mornings) or shoot for the kids on split shifts.

Turn your Ray Stevens on.

This week, with the help of over 3,000 Top-40, MOR, FM and Country stations across the country, Barnaby Records presents Ray Stevens' latest album

As Cash Box predicts, "Turn Your Radio On" is sure to get plenty of air play and sales. ... Stevens has been turning audiences on for years via his imaginative and lasting original songs.

"Turn Your Radio On" includes the title tune, plus more of Ray's most recent hits, like "Have a Little Talk With Myself," "All My Trials" and "A Mama and a Papa."

"Turn Your Radio On." And listen to one unsolicited Ray Stevens commercial after another.

"Turn Your Radio On."
Ray Stevens' new Barnaby album.

BETTER BABIES FROM WARNER BROS.

2053 The last from Dean Martin, already winner of five gold albums. This his best in years.

2585 With her longtime producers and writers — Burt Bacharach and Hal David — Dionne Warwick can do no wrong.

2573 Stanley Kubrick's smash film is musically enthralling — "Switch On" Walter Carlos provides the stunning score.

2051 The movie's score is a steal: Little Richard, Roberta Flack, Doug Kershaw perform Quincy Jones' music.

REPRISE

2584 A brand new Latin-rock band led by Jorge Santana walls like something possessed. A new hit.

2522 King of the bottle-neck guitar is Mr. Cooder, and he turns his album into lean meat, even for jaded ears.

RECORDS

All these albums are also available on Ampex-Distributed Warner/Reprise Tapes. If You'd Like to Do Something, Do Register to Vote. Or Else.

2050 One of the idols of the underground and the avant, in another cosmic assault on rock's frontiers. A must.

2054 Acknowledged as the best female singer in rock today, Tracy makes her solo debut here.

2059 The well known rock band comes forth with its second top album, and will score easily.

6476 Kenny Rogers' First Edition in a dramatic, 2 record set (specially priced) about silver mining days. Mig's list $6.98.

2582 Stepping forth from the Grateful Dead is head guitarist Jerry Garcia in a stone smash of a solo debut.

Boo Frazier Gives Tips, Reminisces About His Career

By Boo Frazier
Executive Vice President
Perception/Today Records

NEW YORK—Your product has to be good. There are a lot of records out on the street and you can't just throw out records anymore. The kids of today are hip, they know their music and they know what they want to hear. If you want to sell records today, they've got to be good. That's how it is in the record business in these changing times. The best way to get into this field and learn the business is at the bottom. Work for a distributor in sales or local promotion, or as a stock clerk. It's bad to get into the record business at a higher level because you miss so much, so many things, that you'll need later. It takes longer if you start at the bottom, but it's better for you in the long run. The record industry changes every day, and you've got to notice the changes and remember to look for them or you're lost.

Boo Frazier

I started my record business career in 1958 as a shipping clerk for the late Leonard Chess, founder of Chess-Checker-Argo Records. Leonard later changed the Argo name to Cadet. The label is known today as Chess-Janus Records. One of the prides of my life is remembering the things Leonard taught me about the record business. My personal advice to anyone who wants a career in the record business is never lie about a record. If you've got no action on a record, say so. If you've got some action on a record, say that too, but don't lie about action when there isn't any. That's the biggest crime in this industry—lying about a record. If a company can't accept the truth about a record, whether it's good or bad, then you work for the wrong company. Look for another job! Whomever you're working for, remember—there is no shortcut to success in this business, success will come after many long hour of hard work.

The record business has given me the opportunity to work with some of the great talents of this generation: E. Abner, President of Vee-Jay Records, picked up some tapes in England by an unknown English group. We, at Vee-Jay, were completely unaware of the earth-shattering effects this group was to have on the music world. This group was known as the Beatles. Pat Pipolo and I were the first two promo men in America with records by the Beatles, in the early '60's when they were on Vee-Jay Records. The four Seasons was another young, new group I had the enjoyment of working with early in their career. It was also at Vee-Jay where I met Jerry Butler for the first time. We had a great deal of success together at Vee-Jay, but our greatest success came later when we joined Mercury Records.

Just about the time we were joining Mercury, two unknown producers were getting together in Philly. Their names were Gamble & Huff. I asked them to produce Jerry for Mercury. The rest is history. Some other famous names I was associated with that came from Vee-Jay were The Dells, Staple Singers, Joe Simon, Impressions, Eddie Harris, the Spaniels and record producer Al Smith, who produced people like John Lee Hooker & Jimmy Reed. These people with their heavy blues sound led the way for what is known today as the Underground Sound. At Vee-Jay we made a label distribution deal with a young man from Muscle Shoals, Ala. The name of the label was Fame Records, its owner, Rick Hall. The first release on this label sold a million records—"Steal Away" by Jimmy Hughes. When I reflect back over these years, I'm thankful for what I learned at Vee-Jay. They taught me sales, marketing, merchandising and just about everything else about the business of records.

A budding friendship with Terry Phillips, which began somewhere during those years between Vee-Jay and Mercury, climaxed in 1969 when Moore, Schley & Cameron, investors and brokers from Wall Street,

Prestige 11 LP January Release Features Greats

■ BERKELEY, CALIF. — A mammoth jazz release of 11 double LPs is being shipped this month by Prestige, according to Ralph Kaffel, executive vice president.

The 11-package release includes some of the greatest names in jazz history. There are packages by John Coltrane, Miles Davis, Eric Dolphy, Thelonious Monk, Charles Mingus, Charlie Parker, Mose Allison, the Modern Jazz Quartet, Oscar Peterson, Sonny Rollins, and Yusef Lateef.

The packages have been assembled from the vaults of Prestige Records, remastered by Rudy Van Gelder in the latter's recording studio in New Jersey, and treated to a special packaging job by art director Tony Lane, formerly with Holiday Magazine and Columbia Records, who now heads the art department for Fantasy/Galaxy/Prestige.

"In addition to the special art work which includes many historic photographs," Kaffel pointed out in announcing the release, "special attention has been paid to editorial copy on the album. Essays were solicited from major critics and from writers with special qualifications to comment on particular packages. For instance, Peter Townshend, lead guitar-

JAZZ

By MICHAEL CUSCUNA

Michael Cuscuna

Dennis Budimir is an outstanding guitarist, who is in great demand at Los Angeles recording studios; yet his creative work remains a secret shared only by those avid fans who have his four albums on Revelation Records.

A new Budimir album has just been issued that promises to be an instant collectors' item. It is a jam session from 1964 with the late Albert Stinson on bass, the now famous rock drummer Jim Keltner and saxophonist Gary Foster. The album is dedicated to Stinson and is a beautiful testament to his incredible ability. Revelation is a small label, which sells mainly through mail order. Their address is Box 65593, Los Angeles, California 90065.

The ragtime revival is still growing. After Nonesuch Records had such success with pianists recreating the rags of Scott Joplin and others, Arnold Caplan of Biograph Records decided to go right to the sources and produced for records the piano rolls of Scott Joplin, the very rolls made by Joplin himself. Caplan has extended the series of piano roll records to include Fats Waller and pianists of various other styles.

Chris Strachwitz' Arhoolie Records has now added a new dimension to the whole affair with the release of an album by the New Orleans Ragtime Orchestra (Arhoolie 1058). The orchestra members range from New Orleans musicians in their '60s to the 28-year-old Swedish leader Lars Ivan Edegran. They play rags composed around the turn-of-the-century with orchestrations that were written during that period and recently rediscovered.

It is always gratifying to see a missing piece of musical history uncovered at last. And when the music is as enjoyable as the phenomenon of the rag, it is doubly exciting. This Arhoolie record is quite a breakthrough. It can be obtained by writing to Arhoolie at Box 9195, Berkeley, California 94709.

AN ANCIENT HEAD

decided to finance Terry Philips and enable him to develop his record label. Terry Philips, who is president of Perception/Today Records, insisted that I join the company as executive vice president. Terry was also adamant that the publicity-owned record company would follow a black concept in music, namely a company which would honor and fit the life style of black people. Frankly, when I look at the roster of our artists, such as Dizzy Gillespie, James Moody, Black Ivory, Wanda Robinson, the Odds & Ends, Lucky Peterson, Bartel, and Joe Thomas, I think we're off to a good start toward attaining that goal.

Our company is actually only two years old, and during that period we have done remarkably well. One of the things I have personally taken charge of was building a good jazz line which, I feel, is a good sustaining foundation for the company. During this past year we have developed our Commercial Division and were fortunate enough to have done commercials for Swiss Parfait, Welch's, Celanese, Howard Johnson's and Nabisco.

Through the years we have been able to build up a good solid foundation with djs, retailers, racks, wholesalers, etc., and everyone has been absolutely beautiful in the acceptance of our fledgling company. In 1971, Perception/Today Records racked up 8 chart records—and, that was only our 2nd year!!

One of the best evenings of music in New York occurred at Jazz Interations' December concert at the Village Gate. The bill featured two great jazz musicians who have been in this country all too infrequently during the past few years: Randy Weston and Lucky Thompson.

Thompson Weston

Thompson, a master of the tenor and soprano saxophones and a veteran of many jazz bands, has just moved back into the country after discovering that things are almost as bad everywhere else. Lucky is represented on record only by some fine Prestige albums that he did in the mid-'60s. On this night, he sounded better than ever, romping through a set of originals and standards with a strong rhythm section of Hank Jones, Wilbur Little and Percy Brice.

Weston, who lives and owns a club in Morocco, returns every winter to make a few appearances and take care of business. This night, he was accompanied by Vishnu Bill Wood on bass and Azedine on African drums. The amazing pianist-composer played some of his finest compositions, including "Hi Fly," "African Cookbook" and "Berkshire Blues." Weston is currently working on his first album for CTI.

Randy Weston and Lucky Thompson represent the wealth of neglected genius in America. But then that's a very old story.

Gitlin W-E-A Distrib Director

■ BURBANK, CALIF. — Murray Gitlin has been named Vice President, Director of Management Services, of the Warner-Elektra-Atlantic Distributing Corp., Joel M. Friedman, President of the company, announced last week.

The Management Services Group will provide financial, accounting, data processing and other related services for W-E-A.

Gitlin has been responsible for setting up the electronic data processing installations at all W-E-A branches, as well as integrating each of the companies and the branch system with a flow of daily management and sales reports that have made all the labels most responsive to today's marketing demands.

10-Year Veteran

Gitlin is a veteran of 10 years in the record industry, starting with Reprise Records in its formative years, and then going to Warner Bros. Records. He still continues in his post with Warner Bros., as the company's Controller, responsible for all accounting and royalty administration.

Part of our concept is to create as many good, new artists as possible. That's what show biz and the record biz is all about—new faces and new sounds. Speaking for myself, it has always been a pleasure and it is thrilling to be a part of such an exciting business—the record business.

Janus, Westbound Extend Distrib Pact

■ NEW YORK—Janus Records has extended their exclusive, long-term distribution agreement with Westbound Records, it was announced last week by Marvin Schlachter, President of Chess/Janus Records and Arman Boladian, President of Westbound. Although their present contracts run until January 1, 1973, the feeling of both parties was that new terms could be negotiated for maximum mutual benefits.

Both labels have undergone enormous growth together. Janus began its world-wide distribution of the Detroit-based Westbound Records in December of 1969, just a few months after Janus was formed. Since that time, Westbound and Janus have been regular chart residents.

Currently, Westbound is celebrating its first million-seller, "Trapped By A Thing Called Love" by Denise LaSalle.

Prestige Plans 11-Album Release

ist for The Who, has contributed a memoir of his early listening to Mose Allison. Poet Michael Harper has written an appreciation of John Coltrane, teacher/musician Ken MacIntyre has done an essay on Eric Dolphy with whom he recorded. In addition, critics Nat Hentoff, Ira Gitler, Philip Elwood, Grover Sales and Ralph J. Gleason have done essays on the various artists."

The double packages are being promoted in a special "two-fer" campaign by Prestige which will include extensive trade ads and consumer ads in selected markets as well as a special display poster designed by Tony Lane. The series is priced at $6.98 retail, Kaffel pointed out, which makes it a bargain package for jazz fans.

"When we took over the Prestige catalogue for the U.S. and Canada last year, I was deeply impressed by the quantity and consistency of jazz sales," Kaffel says. "After analyzing this and discussing it with our staff we decided to launch the 'two-fer' series. We think this is the logical way to merchandise jazz, by making available the very best of the jazz recordings in special, well produced, remastered and attractively and informatively packaged sets.

"We have observed, from our sales and contact with dealers and with all kinds of radio stations, a resurgence of jazz interest on the part of the younger generation. When you have a situation in which some jazz artists can sell in greater quantity than some pop artists, you instantly realize that there is a real market out there for jazz," Kaffel said.

The current "two-fer" packages, with the exception of the Parker and the Mingus, come from the vaults of Prestige. The Parker and Mingus' packages were formerly available only on the Debut label distributed by Fantasy.

The Miles Davis set is composed of the complete music of two of his middle period Prestige albums, "Relaxin'" and "Cookin'" which were recorded with the late John Coltrane. This was the historic Miles Davis Quintet of the late 50s.

The Modern Jazz Quartet package consists of the complete MJQ recordings for Prestige, the first records made by the distinguished group. The Theolonious Monk package is the complete Monk on Prestige and the John Coltrane package includes the tracks he made with the Red Garland Trio.

The Mose Allison release includes the complete "Back Country Suite" with "Parchman Farm" and "Young Man's Blues." The Sonny Rollins package includes work with various all-star groups, the Mingus set includes performances with Max Roach and the Epic Dolphy package presents the rare first recordings of Dolphy. The Oscar Peterson package consists of performances he originally recorded in Europe.

"In addition to the trade and consumer advertising and the poster, the 'two-fer' series will be promoted via a special sampler LP distributed to underground and jazz radio stations," Kaffel said. "We know there is an increased interest in this kind of music at these stations and the sampler LP is designed to help fill the need."

Prestige sales manager Max Cooperstein left last week for sales meetings in various sections of the country to launch the 11 package Prestige "two-fer" series.

Capitol to Klein on 'Bangla Desh'

Monday, December 20, we had experienced enormous interest in the album from dealers and subdistributors alike. Surely, there is no doubt in anyone's mind that "Bangla Desh" has been the most highly publicized album in record-industry history, even before it was issued.

Unfortunately, because of the extended negotiations required to arrive at an agreement among the three parties (Apple, CBS and Capitol), the album did not reach the marketplace until long after co-op advertising with major Capitol accounts had been planned and scheduled for the Christmas season. Initially, not knowing on what date or under what terms we would be able to make the album available, we could not solicit co-op advertising. As you know, our customers generally plan and schedule co-op advertising weeks and months in advance of publication dates; and such advance preparation simply was not available to us. However, since January 11, Capitol has actively solicited co-op advertising and we expect that such advertising will run in the near future. But, Allen, I must remind you that Capitol, like all distributors, does not have absolute control over the content of its co-op advertising; and, in our experience, customers who favor co-op advertising prefer to advertise merchandise on which they can discount and still make an acceptable margin—not items like "Bangla Desh," which, unfortun-nately, offers very little operating margin.

(2) Capitol is perhaps singularly uninformed as to any advertising agreements between Apple and CBS. There is no agreement between Capitol and CBS for the undertaking of a cooperative advertising and promotion campaign, to be funded 25% by CBS. We are reliably informed that CBS is not offering any co-op advertising on "Bangla Desh" tapes; and we are not aware that you have made any demands, public or private, upon them to do so.

(3) Capitol is devoting its best efforts to distribute, sell, advertise and exploit the "Bangla Desh" album. From the start, Capitol has sold and promoted "Bangla Desh" aggressively. Every member of the Sales and Promotion staff has handled the album as a "top concentration" project. Shortly after release date, Capitol produced and distributed 10,000 copies of a two-color 13" x 34" window-and-wall streamer which gives the album prominent display at point-of-purchase. These streamers have been extensively used throughout the country.

(4) There was never any understanding that Capitol would give a 2% "prompt payment" cash discount. Such a discount, amounting to 20¢ per album, has obviously not been built into the total pricing structure, by which Capitol's gross receipts for distribution are $1.865, less 25¢ as a "use royalty" demanded by CBS for Bob Dylan's performances, or a net of $1.615.

NARAS on TV

of Recording Arts and Sciences, the American Broadcasting Company, which will televise the event, and CoBurt Producers, packagers of the top-rated special.

The date for the telecast: Tuesday, March 14.

The time: 8:30 to 10:00 p.m. (EST and PST).

Like last year's program, which ranked seventh among all of the season's specials, this telecast will focus on the actual envelope-opening excitement created as the numerous nominees and celebrity presenters, assembled in New York, await the theretofore secret results, as determined by the votes of the Academy's members. In addition, CoBurt Producers plan several entertainment sequences built around current Grammy nominees and previous Grammy winners.

As you will remember, you refused to inform Capitol of Apple's selling price to Capitol until December 12, 1971; and there was never any understanding at that time, or subsequently, that Capitol's $1.615 was to be further reduced by 20¢ for "cash discount" or 50¢ for cooperative advertising.

(5) You mention that you have undertaken the production and printing of books, boxes, and other materials based upon a projection of sales in large measure relying upon our usual advertising activities. You made your projections without any consultation with Capitol and, in fact, you had ordered one million books weeks before the distribution agreement was consummated.

(6) "Bangla Desh" sales through January 14 totalled 508,141 sets. This is not a poor figure for 19 selling days, especially considering that "Bangla Desh" bears the extremely high wholesale price of $10.00. That sales have not exceeded even the present high level is attributable to three factors:

- (a) the extremely narrow profit margin available to dealers;
- (b) the absence of a normal (or, in fact, any) functional discount for subdistributors;
- (c) the limitation of returns to 10% instead of the normal 100%.

All of these factors were necessitated by the terms established by you, the manufacturer, for sales of albums to Capitol, the distributor. On numerous occasions during the protracted

AFMA Adding

■ The American Folk Musicians Association AFMA is going full blast with charters now in several states. National President George Reimensnyder R.D. #2, Milton, Pa. 17847 invites country, gospel bluegrass entertainers to write him for possible membership.

Commenting on the selection of New York as the site for this year's Grammy Awards, the most coveted of all recording prizes, Phil Ramone, president of the Academy's New York chapter, states, "The recording industry has become an international media, and we are proud, as a leader in that community, to serve as the host city for this year's Grammy Awards."

Additional details regarding the precise site, master of ceremonies, producer, director and writers of the show will be announced shortly.

negotiations including the negotiations in London, Mr. Menon and his delegates advised you of the probable deleterious results; even with these probable deterrents to the sale of the album, you nonetheless insisted upon imposing these terms upon Capitol and the industry.

(7) Throughout the negotiations you repeatedly told Capitol that there was to be a television and/or motion picture release of the Madison Square Garden Concert. We now understand that the network TV Special has been delayed and perhaps abandoned. We can only express our regret that the benefits of such nation-wide promotional impact have been denied this worthy project. And though you describe the album as the "sound track" of a motion picture, no such film has been available for exhibition, thus depriving the album of the additional widespread acceptance sure to result from exhibition of such a film.

Finally, Allen, we deny that Capitol has damaged anyone in this matter, and we deplore your tactics of making irresponsible claims and charges at press conferences. In particular, we find it most offensive that you should release to the press on January 14 a private letter postmarked that very day, dated January 12, and certain not to reach its addressee until January 17 at the very earliest.

Yours very truly,
Capitol Records Inc.

The three defendants are International Tape Inc. of Parlin, New Jersey; Matthew Productions of Columbus, Ohio; and Telecor Industries Inc. of Fairfield, New Jersey. Also named in the injunction but not listed as defendants are TDI, an affiliate of International Tape Inc., Robert Levy, who was allegedly distributing product of Eastern Tape Corp. and its affiliates, and Charles Gellert and Harold Davidov of Telecor.

Two separate hearings were conducted on Tuesday afternoon. Justice Nathan M. Cohen issued a temporary restraining order on pirated Columbia product by all three defendants pending further hearings on January 28.

He also criticized International Tape Inc. for circulating a letter which he called "false and misleading"; the letter created the impression that all record companies were enjoyed from prosecuting pirates, and the judge ordered that it stop circulating.

In the hearings on the Capitol suit, Justice Francis P. Delaney issued a temporary restraining order with regard to pirated Capitol product pending a January 27 hearing.

Suits were also filed by Capitol and Columbia on January 19 against Eastern Tape Corporation and one of its affiliates, Super Hits Inc., both of North Carolina, and against the Goldman Company of Skokie, Illinois.

At hearings on January 20, temporary restraining orders were also issued against these companies, pending hearings February 1.

were unauthorized duplications of Atlantic product.

After the sale the counter girl was immediately put under arrest, and Weixler went about the task of seizing 110 individual tapes that he knew were unauthorized duplications of Atlantic artists. Officer Sampson then sealed all glass cabinets containing other unauthorized tapes.

Approximately 700 other unauthorized tapes are now safely locked in the cabinets, and all that remains is the authority of other major record companies. With this, the police can make the final seizures.

Fifty per cent of all unauthorized tapes carried the Alpine-8 label.

Since the Harry Fox agency has initiated law suits against 20 other local merchants, other arrests are expected.

Mercury label will be maintained, and given worldwide distribution.

These developments were announced last week by Coen Solleveld, President of the Polygram Group.

Solleveld expressed his delight with Mercury President Irwin Steinberg's willingness to stay at his post, and said: "Mercury's future looks as bright as its stars in the entertainment skies. Again and again this company's able staff has found and nurtured artists and acts which have achieved world fame: the Platters, the Four Seasons, Frankie Laine, and Rod Stewart to name only a few.

"Together with Polydor Inc. and Chappell Inc., we feel we are entering a new phase in our corporate life in the world's biggest market."

Irwin Steinberg's comments on the forthcoming deal were, "We at Mercury welcome the opportunity to join Phonogram International and the Polygram Group. The association will open new horizons for Mercury. Exciting years are ahead."

Larry Weiss To Famous Pubs

Weintraub said, "Sid Bernstein is unquestionably one of the most talented and respected men in the music industry, and it is a privilege for me to announce our collaboration. Together we have what we believe to be one of the most potent productions, management and promotion offices in the business."

For several years, Bernstein has enjoyed one of the finest international reputations in the concert field as a promoter, producers and manager.

Sid Bernstein, Jerry Weintraub

As a personal manager, Bernstein will bring with him to Management III such artists as The Rascals, Buzzy Linhart, Weather Report, Mandrill and Peaches and Herb.

Management III currently has offices in New York and Los Angeles. Weintraub and Bernstein indicated that they are currently negotiating a full-scale operational wing in London to accommodate the European acts they plan to promote here, beginning with the new Moody Blues tour from March 22 through April 8.

Heading the Los Angeles operation of Management III is Sal Bonafede, who was until very recently with CMA.

Also joining Management III in New York is Billy Fields, former director of Sid Bernstein Enterprises Inc.

Weiss, predominantly known as a writer, has a varied background in the music business. He joins Famous, after a two-year independent operation encompassing production, publishing, jingles, as well as performing as an artist. In addition he has headed Bob Crewe's pubberies, Claus Ogerman's publishing and has worked in an A&R capacity for Kapp Records.

Of the 300 published songs and 200 released recordings of Weiss' writing efforts, over 30 compositions have achieved chart recognition. Best known are "Bend Me Shape Me" (American Breed), "Mr. Dream Merchant" (Jerry Butler), "Help Me Girl" (Eric Burdon).

Weiss' existing publishing firms are Larry Weiss Music Ltd. (ASCAP) and El Double-U Music Inc. (BMI). These will now fall under the Famous Banner for US and Canada.

MCA Stars Shine

■ UNIVERSAL CITY, CALIF. —As might have been expected, it was the stars that really shined at the recent (12-14) MCA Music Festival. At the same time, there were new artists aplenty to insure the continued growth and success of the three MCA labels, Decca, Uni, and Kapp.

In particular, there was a group, Ratchell (Decca), and a songwriter-singer, Lindy Stevens (Decca), to whom popular acceptance in the near future seems reasonably assured. Ratchell has assimilated several rock and pop styles; what emerges is a tasteful sound entirely the group's own. On the other hand, Lindy Stevens' sound compares, favorably, with Laura Nyro; her lyrics are the distinguishing characteristic of her craft.

El Chicano (Kapp) has been on the scene for some time now with its latin-rock fusion and now would seem to be the time for this vital band to break through. Mike Settle (Uni), who was with the First Edition from the beginning, has formed another musical aggregation of that sort—one that sounds sure to become a potent commercial entity. Tom Ghent (Kapp), a Nashville-based troubadour in the Kristofferson mold, has a particularly outstanding song named "Whiskey, Whiskey" and a world of potential.

Other newcomers worth hearing again who performed were Rockin' Foo (Uni), Parrish and Gurvitz (Decca), Uncle Jim (Kapp), and Thomas and Richard Frost (Uni).

Of the more familiar artists on the several programs, Rick Nelson (Decca) merits special mention. His Stone Canyon Band remains the very finest of the country-rock ensembles. He writes with the best of those who sing their own stuff and selects the rest of his material with expertise. As a vocalist he's one of the best, and always has been.

What is there to say of performers like Sonny and Cher (Kapp), Neil Diamond (Uni), Conway Twitty and Loretta Lynn (Decca), Roger Williams (Kapp), and Bill Cosby (Uni) but that they rank with the best of their respective musical and/or entertainment types. Or, that they do what they do as well as it can be done.

All of which is not to forget Jerry Clower (Decca) from Yazoo City, Mississippi, a very funny man. Gregg Geller

Gold 'Sunshine'; Edwards to Atco

Edwards next single, "Everybody Knows Her," along with all of the artist's forthcoming product, will be released and distributed by Atco Records.

■ LONDON—Bell Records celebrated their U.K. independence with a highly enjoyable party at London's Inn On The Park Hotel last week. Guests included Bell chief Larry Uttal and other U.S.A. executives, several top djs, BBC Radio and TV executives, Radio Luxembourg personnel, music publishers, and many Bell associates, artists and producers. The Fantastics and the Fifth Dimension supplied the entertainment and by doing so, proved their great ability beyond any doubt. Bell's British operation, fronted by Dick Leahy, has been built steadily over the past two years and now they are enjoying the success that follows such independent producers as Tony Macaulay, Mike Leander, Rogers, Cook and Greenaway, Arnold, Martin and Morrow, as well as Jonathan King. Due to their association with these producers and the steady flow of Stateside-produced hits by Dawn, the Delfonics and the Partridge Family, Bell rose to third position in U.K. singles sales last year. Obviously keen to gain a similar success in the album market, Leahy will commence by putting concentrated effort behind his initial batch of LP releases—"Godspell" show album, "Nicholas and Alexandra" soundtrack and those by the Fantastics, Young and Renshaw, Fifth Dimension, Marianne Faithful and Brown's Home Brew.

Elton John back-up musicians, Dee Murray and Nigel Olsson will now be joined by Magna Carta guitarist, Davy Johnson, on his Royal Festival Hall concert with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra February 5. The current Elton John album, "Madman", has reached the million sales mark thus qualifying for a gold disc has also received the Radio Luxembourg Kid Jensen award for 1971. Meanwhile his first LP titled "Elton John" has been awarded a platinum disc for totaling two million dollars worth of sales.

Carnaby Records, the label owned by British country music promoter, Mervyn Conn, has been re-launched through a new distribution deal with Phonogram, (new official name for Philips Records). The label was previously distributed by Pye and initial releases here are albums by John Morgan, James Royal, and Gary and Stu, together with a single by Libby Morris, wife of Record World country columnist Murray Kash, titled "Build The Ladder High."

Former Larry Page International press officer Lisa Denton, has left to join Phonogram Limited in a similar capacity. Miss Denton has been with Larry Page for several years, commencing with his Page One Records operation and more recently with his Penny Farthing label. She will be responsible to Rex Oldfield at Phonogram. 15 months after its release, "Jesus Christ Superstar" has made the British album chart at 14.

Onda Nueva Fest Ready to Take Off

■ CARACAS — The Second Onda Nueva World Festival, to take place in Caracas, Venezuela, February 2, 4 and 5, 1972, is reaching its final stages of preparation. Guest artists, as well as participants—performers, composers and arranger-conductors—from all over the world will arrive in Caracas during the first week of February.

According to Aldemaro Romero, Producer of the event, this year's Festival will top last year's, which gathered top talent to present a new music called Onda Nueva.

Romero has invited Paul Mauriat, Franck Pourcel, Elmer Bernstein and others, who were in last year's festival. Some of the new names who have confirmed their attendance include Sammy Cahn, David Raksin, Trini López, Tito Puente, Willie Bobo, Francis Lai, Lalo Schifrin, Charlie Byrd, William B. Williams, Nelson Riddle, Morgana King, and other known figures from America and Europe, including some from behind the Iron Curtain.

Among others expected to attend the event are Barry Ulanov, Roberto Clemente, Elsa Martinelli, Johnny Magnun, Claude Lelouch, Milene Demongeot, Jesús Soto and many more. Over 200 personalities will attend the event, for a total of 24 competing songs, plus a dozen or more special acts.

Kopshever Uni Manufacturing Dir.

■ HOLLYWOOD — MCA Records President, J. K. Maitland, announces the appointment of Edward D. Kopshever as Director of Manufacturing for the company.

Kopshever will be in charge of all MCA Records' manufacturing both in the U.S. and Canada.

In making the announcement, Maitland noted, "MCA Records, Inc. is committed to a program which will control all of the manufacturing of our record and tape product in company-owned plants located in Gloversville, New York; Pinckneyville, Illinois; North Hollywood, Cal.; and Cornwall, Ontario, Canada. Mr. Kopshever will be responsible for coordinating all of our manufacturing operations with plant managers reporting directly to him."

Kopshever, who holds a degree in Education from Notre Dame University, has most recently functioned as Plant Superintendent at the company's Pinckneyville factory, a position he has held for the past fourteen years. Prior to that he served as Plant Superintendent in Richmond, Indiana and in Chicago. Kopshever started in the record industry with Decca Records some 23 years ago in Chicago.

London, Cy Coleman In Multi-Disc Deal

■ NEW YORK—Walt McGuire of London Records has concluded a multi-faceted deal with Notable Productions for the services of Cy Coleman as producer-artist.

The first record release is by a group formed by Coleman called the Cy Coleman Co-Op which consists of singers, instrumentalists, and Coleman on both vocals and piano. The sound is geared for the Top 40 market, but is in no way in competition with the current rock groove.

The material will be written for the Co-Op by Coleman, and sometimes in collaboration with many writers on the scene. This, of course, doesn't discount the Co-Op doing a heavy piece of material should it come along.

The first record on release is "What Are Heavy?," adapted from a 19th century poem by Christina G. Rossetti, backed up with "When It Comes To Lovin'," with lyrics by Barbara Fried. These songs will be published by Notable Music Company, Inc.

Elektra Plans Breaking Bread

■ NEW YORK — The entire Elektra sales and promotion staff is involved in a major promotional campaign for Bread which began with the release last week of their latest LP, "Baby I'm — a Want You," and which will run until the end of February.

The campaign, "Let's Break Bread Together," is being directed towards the entire Bread catalogue of four albums and is employing a variety of merchandising techniques.

Primarily, Elektra is holding a contest for all its salesmen and promotion men. Salesmen's prizes will be based on the best in-store and window displays. The grand prize is a trip to London for two for the winning account. Other prizes include the Steak-of-the-Month Plan from Pfaelzer Bros. and Westinghouse micro-wave ovens.

The promotion men's contest will select winners on the basis of their support of the salesmen and the amount of FM airplay for the catalogue.

Several Tools

Several tools have been created to aid the promotion. Robert Heimall, Art Director, has constructed several kinds of special display material for in-store use. These include three posters — one of title strips of Bread's six best-selling singles, another poster of Bread logos and a four color personality poster of the group. In addition, Heimall has constructed a stand-up display until for stores which utilizes two actual record covers die-cut to interlock giving a three-dimensional effect and showing both front, back and inside gatefold of "Baby I'm — a Want You."

Also, a special Bread sampler has been put together for both radio and store use. The LP, which is for promotional use only, includes 12 of Bread's best songs, taken from their entire catalogue. It is being given to radio stations to use as contest prizes as well as to stores for in-store play.

In support of the promotion push, Elektra is also planning an extensive advertising campaign that will include both print ads and radio spots. The spots will be geared to tie in with Bread's performing schedule this winter, which covers television appearances.

Emily Seaman Dies

■ NEW YORK—Emily Seaman, who has been RIAA Office Manager for the past 15 years, died here last week.

Papale Playboy Nat'l Promo Mgr.

■ LOS ANGELES — Playboy Records and Music's Executive Vice-President, Bob Cullen, has appointed Michael J. Papale as National Promotion Manager for the new label; he will report directly to Ron Goldstein, National Sales Manager. Papale was formerly with Stax/Volt Records in Memphis as National Promotion Manager.

Papale has a diversified background in the music industry beginning his career as a radio announcer in Pittsburgh before moving to St. Louis where he became the number one disc jockey. Leaving radio, Papale joined Chess Records in Chicago for a year as their Midwest Regional Promotion Manager handling such artists as Ramsey Lewis, The Dells, and Rotary Connection. He moved on to Polydor Records in New York before joining Stax/Volt in 1970 where he promoted such hits as Jean Knight's "Mr. Big Stuff," The Dramatics' "What You See Is What You Get," Staple Singers' "Respect Yourself" and "Heavy Makes You Happy," Booker T. & the MG's "Melting Pot" and Isaac Hayes' "Theme from Shaft".

Papale's appointment is effective immediately.

■ LOS ANGELES—On January 20th, promotion men from across the nation gathered at the ABC/Dunhill home offices in Los Angeles to be introduced to the first quarter 1972 releases for the label. Over 40 new releases for this first quarter are scheduled for release.

The product to be introduced will be released over the months of January, February and March, in keeping with the company's policy to release quality rather than quantity, to afford each new release proper promotion and exposure.

Malo

San Francisco's Mission District is a crowded Chicano-Black ghetto where there isn't much for the young people to do except "keep your mind off the people walking around trying to kill you." Arcelio Garcia, Jr. laughs when he says it, but he laughs most of the time. "Music is essential to survival," adds Jorge Santana. "The best thing to do is to get away. Music helps you get away."

Most of Malo grew up in the Mission District, though they were born in random places like Jalisco, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Manila, Nicaragua and Wyoming. In the course of "getting away" the 10 Malo members had taken varied roads: The Malibus, a Latin rock band comprised principally of Jorge, Pablo and Arcelio; Janis Joplin's Kozmic Blues Band with Luis Gasca and Richard Ker-mode; a variety of Mission District soul/jazz bands like Soul Sauce and Soul Sacrifice; and Abel, Rick and Roy from a group called Naked Lunch. They were all there in San Francisco, some of the musicians were friends, others were strangers, but their lives crossed and recrossed. The nucleus, the Malibus, carefully picked and chose and added. They also did a lot of waiting; waiting for the right musician at the right time. Then they changed their name to Malo. They found a producer, or vice versa, David Rubinson, the same man who has cut Moby Grape, Taj Mahal, Mongo Santamaria, the Chambers Brothers, Cold Blood and Santana.

The leader of Malo is Jorge Santana, and yes, Jorge Santana is brother to Carlos, of whom you have already heard. Jorge was born June 13, 1954 in Jalisco, Mexico, moved to San Francisco in 1962. He plays guitar and had been playing with Latin rock bands, but there is no big rivalry with his brother Carlos. Arcelio, the fast talker, could be Zorba if only older, if only Greek. He was born on May 7, 1946 in Manatí, Puerto Rico, was raised in New York City's El Barrio and moved to San Francisco when he was 9. He is the lead vocalist and frequent lyricist with Malo. Abel Zarate was born December 2, 1952 in Manila, Philippines. His family moved to San Francisco when he was three; eleven years later he began playing guitar, was part of Naked Lunch and is now Malo's second lead guitarist. He is also composer of much of Malo's music. Pablo

DESDE NUESTRO RINCON INTERNACIONAL

By TOMAS FUNDORA

(This column appears first in Spanish and then in English)

Tomas Fundora

Gran campaña promocional de Caytronics por el lanzamiento del nuevo "álbum" de Sandro titulado "Espectacular," que lleva doble portada con la figura de Sandro a todo su largo y una excelente fotografía del cantante argentino, que bien vale la pena mencionar, ya que es uno de los trabajos fotográficos y de separación más profesionales que he visto en tiempo. Se espera que esta nueva grabación alcance cifras espectaculares de venta... A pesar de una campaña lenta, sórdida, constante y malintencionada de uno o dos pequeños sellos latinos (de los de antes) en contra de la debida promoción a algunos sellos latinos (norteamericanos en producción) en Puerto Rico y Nueva York, al fin y al cabo, la verdad se ha ido abriendo paso entre los discjockeys. ¡Lon malos son ellos!... "Noelia" en la voz de Nino Bravo avanza con fuerza de éxito fuerte... El sello Teca se ha activado de modo impresionante. A más de establecer sus distribuciones en Puerto Rico y Nueva York con todas las necesidades, incorporan más y más artistas a su catalogo. Así vemos a Jaime Negrón, Yolandita Monge, Monguito "El Unico" y Los Violines de Pego engrosar las ventas de la pujante empresa... Firmó al gran Carlos Lico, la empresa Musart en México. Desde hace tiempo, Carlos merece la debida promoción y distribución en Estados Unidos y Puerto Rico. ¡Y sigue necesitándolas!... Todo parece indicar que Enrique Cáceres triunfará en toda Latinoamérica como solista... Por problemas de salud le fué imposible a Sabú hacer sus presentaciones en el Festival Popular de Tokio. Pese a no actuar en el evento grabó un "tape" para la TV Japonesa en el cual interpretó "Vuelvo a Vivir, Vuelvo a Cantar," "He Tratado de Olvidarte," "Qué sea Real," "El o you" y otros temas exitosos.

Enrique Cáceres

Peerless de duelo en México ante la muerte de su artista exclusivo Enrique Rambal... Joe Bataan está vendiendo impresionantemente su interpretación de "Shaft." Este tema formará parte del nuevo "álbum" de Joe que saldrá próximamente a la venta titulado "Saint Latin's Day Massacre"... Espectacular el nuevo "álbum" de Joe Cuba para el sello Tico. Saldrá a venta y promoción en tres semanas... Irrumpen violentamente en México Los Baby's con su interpretación de "He Perdido una Perla"... Se espera que las ventas del "álbum" del grupo Malo, (de corte latino) lanzado por Warner Bros. sean impresionantes. Forma parte de esa nueva agrupación magistral, Jorge Santana, hermano del muy conocido y exitoso Carlo Santana... Celia Cruz y Tito Puente trabajando en nueva grabación... Borinquen ha roto records de ventas en Nueva York y Puerto Rico con "Payaso" interpretado por la Orquesta La Selecta... Mary Lou Records de Nueva York ha puesto a la venta en su sello Salsa, un long playing de Primitivo Santos y otro de Cheo Rosario y su Orq., titulado "El Vive Bien."

Se rumora insistentemente que todos los sellos latinos irán a un precio standard de $3.98, en grabaciones estereo compatibles, a finales de Abril. ¡Buenas noticias!... Provi García de Mónica Records muy entusiasmada por el éxito de sus producciones de Tania Marti y Lisa. Van logrando gran impacto internacional

La invictación la hizo extensiva la esposa del Presidente Peruano por medio de Atahualpa Yupanqui, compositor Sudamericano . . . Imelda Miller, se luce y longra un nuevo éxito, esta vez con "La Hija de la Oscuridad" y gana muchos aplausos con sus presentaciones en el club nocturno La Fuente . . . Retornó cargado de felicidad por sus triunfos Enrique Linares de Managua, donde gustaron mucho sus versiones "Mienteme," "Condición" y "Embrujo" . . . Ante la presencia de Eduardo Baptista, Guillermo Arriaga y Jaime Sanchez Rosaldo; firmó contrato en exclusividad con Musart el intérprete Carlos Lico, quien grabará bajo la dirección de experimentado Alfredo "Güero" Gil, es de esperarse muy buena producción de este buen binomio . . . Los artistas invitados que han confirmado su asistencia para el Festival de la Canción ha realizarse en Acapulco la primera semana de Mayo son: Paul Muriat, Gloria Martín, y el pequeño intérprete chileno Juan Carlos, según nos informa Jorge Audifred Director del Festival . . . Barbra Streisand, es uno de esos fenómenos musicales que nos permite observar una versatilidad inusitada en cada melodía, en esta ocasión presenta un L.P. bajo el título de "Barbra Joan Streisand" é incluye el éxito actual "Mother" de John Lennon, "Donde Llevas Ventaja" de corte modern, "Capitan del Espacio" mezcla de soul y blues, y muchos temas más que demuestran la calidad de Barbra . . . Muy buena labor del equipo Peerless Zaldivar - Hernandez - Obregón con la orientación y proyección de Enrique Guzmán, su primera grabación "En Ese Mismo Lugar" es hit nacional y se mantiene en los primeros lugares de venta y popularidad . . . En el mercado las primeras grabaciones de la etiqueta Monica, qpe distribuye en México RCA. Lisa se proyecta con las versiones "Nacida para Amar" y "No Quiero que te Vayas," y también la incomparable Tania Marti presenta "Te Debo Tanto" y "Otra Vez Volvió el Amor," grandes intérpretes y my buenos temas . . . Las Hermanas Nevarez se consolidan, y todo hace indicar un brillante futuro. Su última grabación "Desconfianza" logra gran impacto . . . Edith Otero "La Furia" joven intérprete de la música tropical, lanzó su primer sencillo con las versiones "La Furia" de Homero Aguilar y "A La Deriva" de Manuel Sanchez Acosta . . . Enero es el mes de Peret, se espera con verdadera ansiedad al "Rey" de la rumba flamenca . . . Bell Records, es la nueva marca que acaba de incorporarse a Polydor. Y cuenta entre su elenco a La Familia Partridge, La Quinta Dimensión, y Dawn el triunfador de las versiones "Candida" y "Toca Tres Veces." Pero lo interesante de esta noticia, no solo estriba en la incorporación de Bell Records a Polydor, sino que el contrato tiene efecto retroactivo . . . De 4 álbumes consta la nueva serie de figuras artísticas europeas que pronto estará en el mercado, Mikis Theodorakis (compositor de la musica de Zorba el Griego), Melina Mercouri, Victor Manuel (compositor-intérprete español) y George Moustaki (Griego) . . . Y antes de despedirme quiero felicitar al colega Mariano Mendez Vigo por su incorporación a la familia de Record World, quien estará informando desde España, Suerte Mariano . . . ¡Y será hasta la proxima si Dios quiere!

"Alma con Alma" por Ray Barreto va resultando también triunfadora en Miami y comienza a moverse en otras áreas. Ray Barreto está barriendo con "Se Traba." Y ahora . . . ¡Hasta la próxima!

Caytronics is preparing a very heavy promotional campaign for the release of their new album by Sandro titled "Espectacular." Repertoire is superb and a double folded album showing an excellent picture of the artist that serves as a poster will be a great help to obtain the high figures that Caytronics is expecting with this album . . . "Noelia" is a winner by Nino Bravo. Great theme! . . . Teca Records is showing a lot of stamina. Besides the com-

MALO

Warner Bros. WB BS 2584

Nueva grabación latina que pudiese dar fuerte en todos los mercados presentando a Jorge Santana con su grupo Malo, que es buenísimo, en grandes ejecuciones musicales. Producida por David Rubinson y con un sonido impresionante. Geniales en "Pana," "Café," "Suavecito," "Just Say Good-bye," "Nena" y "Peace."

■ Yes, Malo will make it with this album. Groovy latin sound at its best new sound! "Peace," "Nena," "Suavecito," more. Jorge Santana could click with this group as his brother is doing. Great!

FAUSTO REY - II

4 Points FP 1241

En años no aparece una voz como Fausto Rey. El interprete dominicano se luce aquí en "Concierto en Gris," "Eso lo Castiga Dios," "Pecado Mortal," "Qué Triste" y "La Lluvia" entre otras.

■ Fausto Rey has a great voice. Here he shows why he could smash everywhere with "Concierto en Gris," "Qué Triste" or "La Lluvia" contained in this cut. Soperb production!

Muy buena producción mexicana que pudiese impactar fuertemente, Esquivel interpreta bellamente "Por Eso te Quiero," "El Buscador de Fortuna," "En su Soledad," "Dos Rosas" y "Si te Vas en Mayo." Bien dirigida promocionalmente pudiese llegar a mucho.

Both of them are being released in several countries with all that is needed to be winners . . . Our congratulations to Wilfredo Garcia, colleague from Replica Magazine based in Miami. His Record Section is well-informed and informative . . . RCA should watch carefully the promotion of "No Tengo Dinero" by Juan Gabriel. It could be a hit everywhere . . . Sales on the new Gran Combo album are impressive . . . Ray Barreto is also selling "Alma con Alma," although he is scoring with "Se Traba."

(Paul) Tellez was born July 2, 1951 in Granada, Nicaragua, moved to San Francisco when he was 16. He started to play guitar but changed to bass in 1968 and now quietly occupies a highly praised position in Malo's rhythm section. Luis Gasca is a graduate of Berklee School of Music and the New England Conservatory of Music. Luis was featured trumpet player with Count Basie, Woody Herman, Cal Tjader and Mongo Santamaria. More recently he was leader of Janis Joplin's Kozmic Blues Band. He was born in Houston, Texas on March 23, 1940. Richard Kermode, blonde organist and pianist, was born in Lovel, Wyoming on October 5, 1946, but grew up in Buffalo, New York. He had a jazz trio called the Milestones. Richard Spremick, a native San Franciscan was born on July 2, 1951, graduated from Mission High School, spent two weeks in college and decided to become a musician—a drummer—first with Naked Lunch and then with Malo.

Raul Rekow, congas, spent his most recent musical time with a group called Soul Sacrifice. He was born June 10, 1954 in San Francisco. Leo Rosales once played with the Escovedo Brothers when he was just nine years old. Later he was a drummer with Soul Sauce, a singer with Sound Systems and is now Malo's timbalero. He also plays congas and piano. Roy Murray prefers to remain enigmatically mysterious. He plays trumpet, trombone, flute and soprano saxophone with equal skill.

Malo had finished their first album before their band was complete, which is why they used two guest musicians from the new Santana album—Coke Escoveda and Victor Pantoja. Shortly after the album was finished, Malo found its own masters of timbales and congas, Leo Rosales and Paul Rekow, respectively, plus two more trumpet players from Stan Kenton and Woody Herman's bands. This is how the new Latin sound is going ahead. Full of pride, stamina and faith. Malo's will go ahead because they are good and are offering their best—which is a lot!

Kris Kristofferson: Next

By CHUCK NEESE

■ NASHVILLE — And Bert Block called; and Roy Dea is coming over; and Arthur Alexander strolled through and Carolyn came in and asked if Kris was taking calls from females. It was like a three-ringed circus — difficult if not impossible to keep up with all the different worlds that were colliding at the Combine Publishing office.

Kristofferson had just finished a demo session at Clement's Studio and already the a&r people were getting appointments to hear what K.K. had put on tape. It was insane! Every writer in town was begging to be heard and the a&r people were lining up to hear what Kris had demoed.

But when you're hot, Jerry Reed says, you're hot! And hot Kris is. As a writer, he's selling millions; and as a recording star his album sales are envious. But what of the man? Is he striving under an illusion? Is he the superstar and eternal heartthrob that all who look for public acceptance would be? No, not really. If you've read the fan mags, you know that Kris is an educated man—and the ability to receive degrees proves one thing: the student has shown his ability to learn. And there's one big thing Kris has learned: permanence in the entertainment world is capricious, they'll knock on your hotel room door tomorrow and forget who you are Saturday afternoon.

Where It's At

"Publishing is where it's at," he says. "I began as a writer and writing is where I want to end up." Kris and manager Bert Block realize full well that bookings are only a "now" thing and they've got to give the public what they want while they want it.

But where does a guy like Kristofferson go from here? "I want to get into movies, not as an actor, but as a writer and director. I want to see that my friends who have talent get the chance to be heard and I want to write songs."

This guy Kristofferson has it all figured: He worked in Nashville Studios and was around Nashville people long enough to know the keys for success. His ability to analyze the industry, the market and the ultimate consumer is shocking—he's sized up his buying market and he's giving them everything they want. Mercenary? Hell, no! It's good business. And that's what Kris is all about. When it's all over—when the public forgets what the initials K. K. stand for, Kris and his associates will be financially secure. And that's what it's about, isn't it? Or isn't it?

NASHVILLE REPORT

By RED O'DONNELL

Red O'Donnell

■ Tommy Cash and his Tomcats band are appearing at Harrah's in Lake Tahoe through Feb. 2 with Debbie Reynolds . . . "Debbie is the headliner but we consider it a definite break to be appearing on the same bill with such a talented performer," says Tommy . . . Tommy also reports his next Epic single release will be "You're Everything," co-written by his producer Glenn Sutton and Billy Sherrill.

"Without reservations I say it is the best I've ever done," he says. I asked Tommy what happened to the plans for him to record a duet with his brother Johnny. "We—Johnny and I—were talking about that the other day. We still plan to do it. We're looking for the right song. You know it isn't easy to find a good song for two men to sing."

Tommy says he and Johnny don't see each other often. It isn't because of the lack of brotherly love or interest. "We live 40 miles apart," says Tommy.

Mel Tillis and his wife Doris have named their doll (born last Saturday) Carrie April Tillis . . . The Tillises now have four girls and a boy . . . "We have an agreement that this is the last one we have," advises Mel, a leader in planned parenthood activity.

Jimmy Martin and his Sunny Mountain Boys signed booking agreement with Atlas Artists Bureau . . . Jan Howard figures she left some deep holes on the slopes of Sugar Mountain near Banner Elk, N.C., where she recently vacationed . . . "I found that it is a bit harder falling while snow skiing than it is water skiing," says the attractive singer.

Don Gibson in and out of the hospital for treatment of a stomach ailment . . . The Docs now have him on a strict diet. End of bland report.

It's the year of excitement for Chet Atkins. He's warming up his vocal chords (or whatever) for singing . . . "Lonely at the Top"—is to be his toast tune . . . Chester B., already a pretty good golfer, is now taking tennis lessons . . . "So far," he admits, "my prowess with the racquet has been a net loss."

Comic Woody Woodbury has formed his own record label—Adirolf, which is Florida spelled backwards . . . If Woody decides on a subsidiary he can name it Rotag—which is Gator spelled backwards.

Young Canadian Bob Ruzicka, a successful dentist in Alberta cut a session here under direction of Danny Davis, independent producer. "The Doc not only has a fine voice but also is a whiz at writing songs," reports Danny . . . "Open Wide, Please" could be his theme???

Birthdays: Doug Kershaw, Rusty Draper, Claude Gray, Spædy West, James O'Gwynn, Buddy Emmons, Bill Phillips and Norma Jean.

COUNTRY HITS OF THE WEEK

SINGLE

BOB LUMAN, "WHEN YOU SAY LOVE" (Jack & Bill, ASCAP). Leave it to writers Foster and Rice and producer Sutton to give Luman his biggest record ever. This is definite Top 10 product. When we say "Bud," we've said it all. Epic 5-10823.

SLEEPER

FREDDY WELLER, "BALLAD OF A HILLBILLY" (Green Grass Music, BMI). Billy Sherrill and Curley Putnam penned this commercial outing which features guitar stylings of all the past greats. Freddy may run into some trouble with listeners when it comes to solving the problem he has with hillbilly singers. Listen closely. Columbia 4-45542.

ALBUM

LORETTA LYNN & CONWAY TWITTY, "LEAD ME ON." Great bunch of tunes, but they sure ruined the cover photos with the blue border and the 100 white stars. The graphic people surely can't put a damper on the album's contents. The hot country duo hit hard with tunes like "Lead Me On," "Back Street Affair" and absolutely the most sexy version of "Easy Lovin'" ever recorded. A natural pick. Decca 75326.

HOTLINE is predicting hit status for Bob Luman's new entry "When You Say Love." The melody and initial lyric were inspired by the Budweiser jingle. We're betting the record will sell plenty of copies for Bob and sell lots of beer for "Bud."

The recent "Coke" commercial "I'd Like To Teach The World To Sing" has been certified a million-seller on two different recordings.

There's no way to disassociate the songs with the products they first touted. It's good for everybody!

Fantastic airplay on regular chart-toppers Lynn Anderson, Freddie Hart and Johnny Cash.

Charlie McCoy has made an instrumental breakthrough to national charts with "Today I Started Loving You Again." Incidentally, after 13 years in Music City backing other stars on their hits, Charlie last week made his first solo Grand Ole Opry appearance.

Singer Johnny Paycheck is scheduled to begin an 11-month, 29-day sentence in Metro workhouse March 1 for passing a worthless $100 check. Paycheck received the sentence after admitting he passed the bum paper at a local motel in April, 1970.

Paycheck's "Don't Take Her, She's All I Got" was a recent top country music recording.

Sammy Jackson has been signed for a lead role in "The Story of Country Music," Marty Robbins' movie which starts filming here Feb. 14. Marty wrote the script, is the producer and put up the money for the picture.

Preliminary selections for the annual Oscar awards have been made a "All His Children" from the "Sometimes A Great Notion" movie is among those chosen. A Henry Mancini composition, it is sung in the picture by Charley Pride, who also has cut it as a single for RCA.

Song of the Year Restriction Revoked

NASHVILLE—Nominees for Song of the Year in the 1972 balloting for CMA Awards will not be limited to songs released for the first time during the eligibility period. This action was taken by the Country Music Association Board of Directors during their First Quarterly Board Meeting in Mexico City, Mexico on January 10 at the Camino Real Hotel.

Each year since the inception of the CMA Awards, the nominations for the Song of the Year Category must have been released for the first time between August 1 of the previous year and July 31 of the year in which the award would be made.

The Board took official action on this matter as a result of a consensus that a "Song of the Year" should be recognized as such, if deemed by the membership, regardless of whether or not the product is on the market for the first time.

The Board voted to extend the term of Office for Directors-At-Large to a two-year term. In years past the six CMA Directors-At-Large had served one-year terms, and could not succeed themselves. Under the new ruling which will be sent to the general membership for approval, three Directors-At-Large will be elected for a two-year term in October of 1972, and three will be elected for a one-year term, to stagger the terms of office.

Directors-At-Large will remain ineligible to serve successive terms as Directors.

Presiding over the meeting were Hubert Long, Chairman of the Board, and Bill Farr, President of CMA. The two chiefs and Officers and Directors heard progress reports about CMA and WSM's co-sponsored First International Country Music Fan Fair. Chairman of the Committee, Bud Wendell, pointed out that over 5,000 people have requested registration.

Pat Daisy Cuts

RCA artist Pat Daisy runs down a new set of lyrics with her publisher Curly Putman. The Alabama housewife signed a recording contract with RCA's Jerry Bradley producing.

COUNTRY SINGLE PRODUCT

BRIAN COLLINS—Mega 615-0058

THERE'S A KIND OF HUSH (Francis, Day & Hunter, ASCAP)

Brian reworks the old Herman's Hermits tune of the mid-sixties and it sounds extremely good with the Nashville country styling. Performance is A Plus!

PAT DAISY—RCA 74-0637

EVERYBODY'S REACHING OUT FOR SOMEONE (Jack Music, BMI)

I'LL BE THERE (Green Grass Music, BMI)

Exciting uptempo Dickey Lee song from the little Miss from the Rocket City. Pat's "Suburban Country" sound is as commercial as water.

DUANE DEE—Cartwheel A-207

SWEET APPLE WINE (Jangle Music, ASCAP)

I CAN'T GET OVER YOU (Shelby Singleton, BMI)

Medium tempo story song on the "A" side. Flip is a pretty Ben Peters ballad. Duane shows us a new wrinkle. Both sides give him a chance to croon.

THE KENDALLS—Dot 17405

TWO DIVIDED BY LOVE (Trousdale Music/Soldier, BMI)

EASY TO LOVE (Tomake Music, ASCAP)

Effective piece of material for the father-daughter duo who just signed with Dot. Pete Drake produced.

GEORGE KENT—Rice 5044

IT TAKES A DRINKING MAN (TO SING A DRINKING SONG)

(Newkeys, BMI)

RUNNING WITH THE WIND (Newkeys, BMI)

Tom T. Hall song that Kent handles extremely well. Up-tempo sound with an infectious melody. Good box bet.

BUCK OWENS—Capitol 3262

I'LL STILL BE WAITING FOR YOU (Blue Book, BMI)

FULL TIME DADDY (Blue Book, BMI)

The Buckaroo has an ole time love ballad for a change of pace. Pretty melody that Buck feels is one of his best ever.

J. D. PETERS—Moonlite 102

HOME IS WHERE IT USED TO BE (Acclaim, BMI)

SOMEONE KNOCKED ON HER DOOR (Acclaim, BMI)

Fine vocalist Peters wears out this Vic McAlpin Ballad. Good bet for boxes and hard country stations. Chart Records distributes.

JERIS ROSS—Cartwheel A-206

BRAND NEW KEY (Neighbor Music, ASCAP)

BABY'S THINKING OF LEAVING (Belle Meade Music, ASCAP)

Janie went to Number One "pop" and Jeris renders a good country version. For some reason nobody has touched the Melanie at country stations. Maybe this cut will break it c&w.
